POBLADORAS, INDÍGENAS, AND THE STATE

Conflicts Over Women's Rights in Chile

Patricia Richards

"No other book on Latin American women's movements addresses the important topic of race/ethnic and class differences with such clarity and sensitivity. Patricia Richards's work will have important implications for theories of women's citizenship and gendered states."—Norma Chinchilla, professor of sociology and women's studies, California State University at Long Beach

THE REVOLUTION QUESTION

Feminisms in El Salvador, Chile, and Cuba

Julie D. Shayne

"Julie Shayne has produced a well-written and thoughtful account of the importance of women to the success of revolutionary movements and the (largely inadvertent) role of the revolutionary leadership in creating the conditions for the rise of feminist movements. Scholars and students will find her extensive interviews to be valuable and thought-provoking, making this an excellent resource for the classroom."—Karen Kampwirth, associate professor of political science and chair of the Latin American studies program, Knox College

Cultural Studies in the Curriculum Teaching Latin America

Danny J. Anderson and Jill S. Kuhnheim, eds.

"This timely work will be extremely useful to those teaching Latin American literatures and cultures, especially if they are exploring, considering, or receptive to new pedagogical approaches."

x & 249 pp. | Cloth ISBN 0-87352-802-6 $37.50 | Paper ISBN 0-87352-803-4 $19.75

Cultural studies has shifted the focus of language and literary studies to concerns previously excluded from the classroom: the perspectives of marginal groups and the expressive forms and social practices of popular and mass cultures. In their introduction to this volume, the editors relate the history of cultural studies in Latin America to later developments in Britain and the United States. Nine essays probe the tension between the literary and the cultural and demonstrate the relevance of cultural studies in an era of globalization. An appendix of sample course syllabi is supplied.

Building Democracy in Latin America

JOHN PEELER

PRAISE FOR THE 1ST EDITION:

“An excellent general introduction to the comparative politics of democratization in the region, interwoven with an intelligent and lucid discussion of democratic theory. It will make worthwhile reading for undergraduates . . . and for [anyone] engaged in current debates about the causes and dynamics of democratization and the contemporary politics of Latin America.”

—Franklin Steves, JISWA

“This is a very good book. . . . [It] will probably stand for some time as the best introduction to Latin America’s complex experience with democracy.”

RACE IN ANOTHER AMERICA

The Significance of Skin Color in Brazil

Edward E. Telles

This is the most comprehensive and up-to-date book on the increasingly important and controversial subject of race relations in Brazil. Here Edward Telles seeks to understand the reality of race in Brazil. He blends demographic analysis with ethnographic fieldwork, history, and political theory to try to “understand” the enigma of Brazilian race relations—how racial inclusiveness can coexist with exclusiveness.

“An important and inspired book, one that will force those who think they know Brazil and who think they know America to examine their preconceptions anew. Telles has not only broken substantial new scholarly ground, he has created work that will be essential reading for anyone trying to understand the often complex and Byzantine workings of race in society.”

The Unraveling of Representative Democracy in Venezuela

edited by Jennifer L. McCoy and David J. Myers

In this volume, leading scholars from Venezuela and the United States ask why representative democracy in Venezuela unraveled so swiftly and whether it can be restored. Its thirteen chapters examine the crisis in three periods: the unraveling of Punto Fijo democracy; Chávez's Bolivarian Revolution; and the course of "participatory democracy" under Chávez. The contributors analyze such factors as the vulnerability of Venezuelan democracy before Chávez; the role of political parties, organized labor, the urban poor, the military, and businessmen; and the impact of public and economic policy. This timely volume offers important lessons for comparative regime change within hybrid democracies.

Crucial Needs, Weak Incentives

Social Sector Reform, Democratization, and Globalization in Latin America

edited by Robert R. Kaufman and Joan M. Nelson

"This is an excellent book that provides a much-needed, thorough, and comprehensive analysis of decision making in two crucial areas of social policy in Latin America: education and health care. It will serve as a very important point of reference for the academic and policy community for years to come."—Kurt Weyland, University of Texas at Austin

NEW FROM THE INTER-AMERICAN
DEVELOPMENT BANK

Social Inclusion and Economic Development in Latin America

edited by Mayra Buvinic and Jacqueline Mazza

This book reviews both the common features of excluded populations—such as women, Afro-descendants, the indigenous, people with disabilities, and victims of HIV/AIDS—and also the region's inclusionary policies and programs that can improve access to social services and economic and political resources.

$24.98 paperback

Agricultural Trade Liberalization

Policies and Agreements in the Western Hemisphere

edited by Marcos S. Jank

Agricultural Trade Liberalization explores key issues in emerging regional and multilateral debates on this politically and economically sensitive subject. The book looks at the role of agricultural issues in negotiations for the Free Trade Area of the Americas, Mercosur-European Union trade, and the U.S.–Central America Free Trade Agreement.

$26.98 paperback

Economic and Social Progress in Latin America

2005 Report

Inter-American Development Bank

Bank loans are the main source of credit for businesses across Latin America, so understanding what determines the depth, cost, and volatility of bank credit is crucial to designing strategies that ensure financial stability and promote growth. This new edition provides a comprehensive analysis of the region's all-important banking industry.

The Last Colonial Massacre

Latin America in the Cold War

GREG GRANDIN

Through unprecedented archival research and gripping personal testimonies, Grandin uses the history of Guatemala to uncover the hidden history of the Latin American Cold War: of hidebound reactionaries intent on holding on to their own power and privilege; of Mayan Marxists, blending indigenous notions of justice with universal ideas of freedom and equality; and of a United States supporting new styles of state terror throughout the continent. Drawing from declassified U.S. documents, Grandin exposes Washington's involvement in the 1966 secret execution of more than thirty Guatemalan leftists, which, he argues, prefigured the later wave of disappearances in Chile and Argentina.

Afro-Latin America, 1800–2000

GEORGE REID ANDREWS

"Afro-Latin America is a deftly balanced and impressively nuanced study that is remarkable for its geographical span, covering the area (except for the non-Hispanic Caribbean) from Mexico to Argentina. This highly accessible, magisterially authoritative account fills a long-standing void in the bibliography for Latin American Studies, American Cultures and the history of the Americas in general. Insightful, intellectually provocative, and engagingly written, this book should find a wide audience among both specialists and non-specialists."

Latin America Transformed

Globalization and Modernity

Second Edition

Edited by ROBERT N. GWYNNE and CRISTÓBAL KAY

Now in a second edition, this book explains Latin America's economic, political, social and cultural transformations, its association with globalization and search for modernity, and how these transformations are affecting the people of the region. Updated and revised to include more student friendly features, the authors have substantially rewritten the material, including three new chapters, to examine the challenges facing Latin American in the twenty-first century.

How To Comply With The New Copyright Law

Libraries everywhere have found the easy way to fill photocopy requests legally and instantly, without the need to seek permissions, from this and over 3000 other key publications in business, science, humanities, and social science.

Participation in the Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) assures you of legal photocopying at the moment of need. You can:

Fill requests for multiple copies, interlibrary loan (beyond the CONTU guidelines), and reserve desk without fear of copyright infringement.

Supply copies simply and easily from registered publications. The CCC's flexible reporting system accepts photocopying reports and returns an itemized invoice. You need not keep any records, our computer will do it for you.

The Copyright Clearance Center is your one-stop place for on-the-spot clearance to photocopy for internal use. You will never have to decline a photocopy request or wonder about compliance with the law for any publication registered with the CCC.

small axe

a caribbean journal of criticism

Small Axe focuses on the renewal of the practices of intellectual criticism in the Caribbean and includes fiction, nonfiction, poetry, interviews, visual art and reviews. Small Axe recognizes the tradition of social, political, and cultural criticism in and about the regional and diasporic Caribbean, and honors that tradition. Small Axe provides a forum for rethinking many of the conceptions that guided the formation of Caribbean modernities and an informed and sustained debate about the present, its political and cultural contours, its historical conditions and global context, and the critical languages in which change can be thought and alternatives re-imagined.

LATIN AMERICAN LIFE COMES ALIVE

Latin American History and Culture: An Archival Record, Series 4

One of the largest Mexican book collections in North America, Series 4: The Mexican Rare Monograph Collection, 1548-1861: From the holdings of the Sutro Library of the California State Library, comprises more than 3,000 exceedingly rare pre-1900 imprints covering such topics as: economics, commerce and finance; national and state policy and politics; and legal issues including criminal justice, public welfare, inheritance and litigation. There are also titles on Mexican-Indian cultures, religious and social mores, and early materials on language and literature. 269 reels in seven parts

Conquistadors • The richest single source of primary source material from the "Age of Discovery" outside Spain, Conquistadors: The Struggle for Colonial Power in Latin America, 1492-1825: From the Department of Manuscripts, British Library, London, features expedition records, original letters and maps of exploration and colonization, and "diaries of discoveries" from South America. From narratives of Columbus' first voyage to the end of Colonial Spanish rule, Conquistadors offers a stunning testimony to European exploitation, evangelization and botanical and geographical exploration in South America. 105 reels

LATIN AMERICAN PERSPECTIVES

A Journal on Capitalism and Socialism

Managing Editor
Ronald H. Chilcote
University of California, Riverside

Join a forum for discussion and debate on the political economy of capitalism, imperialism, and socialism in the Americas. A theoretical and scholarly journal, Latin American Perspectives provides you with an in-depth look from participants and scholars throughout the Americas, with issues frequently focusing on a single problem, nation, or region.

LAP offers a vital multidisciplinary view of the powerful forces shaping the Americas, such as:

- Economics – and the study of the moral, political and social desirability of economic policies
- Political Science – and the patterns of social action that underlie the operation of nations, the competition for power, and the conduct and misconduct of governments
- International Relations – particularly as they affect the nationalist movements and internal problems of Latin American countries
- Philosophy – theoretical and applied to the hard realities of developing nations
- History – a critical view, with frequent inside views of history in the making
- Geography – the environmental condition, ecology, and exploitation of resources
- Sociology – organized groups, social institutions, and the new social movements, including feminism, ecology, and urban and rural labor
- Anthropology – the culture, ethnicity, and resistance of peoples of the region
- Literature – the personal poetic comments of activists and revolutionary scholars

Address all correspondence to the Executive Editor, Latin American Research Review, LARR editorial office, SRH 1.341, 1 University Station, D0800, Austin, TX 78712-0331. Manuscripts should be unpublished in any language and should not be under consideration for publication by any other journal. Please submit two dark, clear copies of your manuscript on 8 1/2" x 11" paper. All material should be typed double-spaced, with notes separately at the end of the manuscript. Manuscripts should not exceed 10,000 words, including references, notes and tables/figures. Please provide a word count including footnotes, endnotes and references. Papers that significantly exceed the 10,000-word limit will not be considered for review. Tables and figurative material should be kept to a minimum. Each page should be counted as the equivalent of 250 words to be included in the overall word count. Include an abstract of not more than 250 words. For all matters of style, especially format for notes and bibliographies, please consult the latest edition of The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press).

LARR is published three times a year, Spring/Summer/Fall by the University of Texas Press. All views or conclusions are those of the authors of the articles and not necessarily those of the editors, the University of Texas Press, The University of Texas at Austin, or The University of Texas System.

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW is the official journal of the Latin American Studies Association and is published to achieve greater and more systematic communication among individuals, institutions, and organizations concerned with scholarly studies and knowledge production relating to Latin America.

The LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW was founded with the support of contributions from a number of sponsoring institutions acknowledged in LARR in past issues, and from a supplementary grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation (for LARR-on-Line).

Membership in the Latin American Studies Association includes a subscription to the LATIN AMERICAN RESEARCH REVIEW. Dues for calendar year 2004 and three-year rates are listed below. Checks for membership should be made payable to LASA and sent to LASA, 946 William Pitt Union, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260. Payment may be in the form of a check in U.S. dollars drawn on a U.S. bank, a money order in U.S. dollars, a UNESCO coupon, or a traveler's check in U.S. dollars with signatures on both lines made out to LASA. LASA also accepts Visa and MasterCard. Telephone LASA (412) 648-7929; Fax (412) 624-7145; E-mail lasa@pitt.edu
