

'Liberian Studies Journal'

THE first issue of this new biannual journal has recently appeared and includes the following articles: The Kpelle traditional political system (Richard M. Fulton); Field notes on tribal medical practices in Central Liberia (Kenneth G. Orr); Two historical manuscripts from the Kru coast (Ronald W. Davis); A. A. Ade'e's journal of a visit to Liberia in 1827 (George E. Brooks, Jr.); The Tubman Center of African culture (Kjell Zetterstrom).

The journal is edited by Dr. Svend E. Holsoe, Director of the African Studies Center, DePauw University, and Dr. David M. Foley, Department of History, University of Georgia, a former member of the faculty of the University of Sierra Leone. It is oriented towards studies in the social sciences and humanities and will publish specialist articles and primary source materials which would ordinarily remain inaccessible to Africanists. Interim reports on research projects in progress and a 'news and notes' section will also be included. The annual subscription of $5.00 should be sent to African Studies Center, DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana 46135.

LORD HAILEY, P.C., O.M.

WE learned with deep regret, as this number of Africa was in the press, of the death on 1 June 1969 of Lord Hailey, former Chairman of the Institute and a Life Member of the Executive Council. An appreciation of his greatly valued services to the Institute and to African Studies will be given in a later number.
