

A HISTORY OF ANCIENT GEOGRAPHY

By the late H. F. TOZER
New Edition. 10 maps. 16s. net

"The numerous quotations from the original writers make the narrative a live one, and the maps supplied are full of interest. No one who cares for ancient history or for geography can afford to be without Dr Cary's 'Tozer.'"—Near East and India.

THE MERCENARIES OF THE HELLENISTIC WORLD

By G. T. GRIFFITH. 16s. net

"Mr Griffith's inquiry can claim to be not on the fringe but in the fairway of history. His book is, indeed, a valuable contribution as much to the study of general Hellenistic history as to that of the art of war."—Times Literary Supplement.

AN APPROACH TO GREEK SCULPTURE

By A. J. B. WACE. 2s. net

CAMBRIDGE UNIVERSITY PRESS

STUDIEN ZUR GESCHICHTE DES SPÄTANTIKEN PORTRÄTS

By H. P. L'ORANGE

"The author increases our knowledge immensely by publishing over fifty new heads, a surprisingly large number . . . the whole book reveals a scholarly mind in the best sense . . . lays an absolutely new foundation for the study of the fifth century."—American Journal of Archaeology (PROF. VALENTIN MÜLLER).

". . . Es ist ein grosser Verdienst L'Oranges, in 248 durchweg ausgezeichneten Abbildungen ein gut gesichtetes Material vorgelegt zu haben, das von Alexander Severus bis zum Ende des 5. Jahrh. n. Chr. reicht. . . Die Studien bilden eine feste Grundlage für jede weitere Forschung auf dem Gebiete der Spätantike."—Philol. Wochenschrift (FR. W. VON BISSING).

248 Illustrations. Cloth, 27s. net; paper, 22s. net

Published in England for the Institute of Comparative Research in Human Culture by

Williams and Norgate

London