

New from manchester

Political Issues in Britain Today

edited by Bill Jones

This is the first book to offer short, systematic, and balanced treatment of a wide range of political issues, from those related to institutions, to those connected with the economy, social policy, and keeping the peace. The book is intended for anyone requiring crisp yet probing and sophisticated analyses of current political questions in Britain.

192 pages

$13.00 (cloth), $6.00 (paper)

June 1985

A Nation in Arms:

A Social Study of the British Army in the First World War

edited by Ian F.W. Beckett and Keith Simpson

The Great War was the first to draw men and women into uniform on a massive scale. From a small regular force of barely 250,000, the British army underwent rapid expansion to a national army of over five million soldiers. A Nation in Arms brings together the work of seven young historians who offer new insight into the social history of the army in one of its bloodiest wars.

288 pages

$32.50 (cloth)

June 1985

New in paperback

British Workers and the Independent Labour Party, 1888-1906

David Howell

Howell's history of the ILP examines the party's bases of support and assesses the scope available in various communities for a new political organization. It then moves forward to a study of the ILP as a national organization.

"An outstanding achievement...deserves to become a standard work."

—New Socialist

"A monumental work. It deserves to be read widely and might well become a classic." —Times Higher Education Supplement

532 pages

$11.95 (paper)

1985

Manchester University Press

51 Washington Street, Dover, New Hampshire 03820

Call toll-free 1-800-343-9444 for MasterCard and Visa orders.

Please write for our complete catalogue.

New from

Croom Helm

Diet and Health in Modern Britain

edited by Derek Oddy and Derek Miller

This examination of the changes in diet and health in Britain during the rapid social development of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries is particularly concerned with the way in which the problems of urban life were ameliorated. Contributions from both historians and nutritionists give a strong interdisciplinary flavor to the volume.

336 pages

$29.95 (cloth)

May 1985

The British and the Grand Tour

Jeremy Black

In the eighteenth century, well-bred young men completed their education with a Grand Tour—usually to France, Italy, and Switzerland, but sometimes encompassing other countries as well. The Grand Tour has never lacked for chroniclers. This scholarly analysis of the motives, purposes, activities, and achievements of those who made the Grand Tour is extensively based on unpublished manuscript diaries and letters written by the tourists.

256 pages

$29.00 (cloth)

July 1985

The Conservative Government 1979-84:

An Interim Report

edited by David S. Bell

The Thatcher style of government is noted for determination, ideological conviction, and resolution. This book is a study of the policies and ideals of the 1979-84 Conservative government. It explores two questions: how were the ideas of the incoming Thatcher government different from previous governments and to what extent were these ideals put into practice.

224 pages

$21.50 (cloth)

August 1985

Croom Helm

51 Washington Street, Dover, New Hampshire 03820

Call toll-free 1-800-343-9444 for MasterCard and Visa orders.

Please write for our complete catalogue.

STUDIES IN HISTORY AND POLITICS

A periodical devoted to articles on special themes of current historical and political interest.

VOLUME I:

LEADERSHIP IN SOCIAL POLICY AND REFORM IN WESTERN SOCIETY (1980)

Articles include:

- C.W. WHITE — The Labour Exchange Bill: Churchill as Social Reformer
- E. ROYLE — The Owenite Legacy to Social Reform 1845-1900
- N.R. EDER — Malingering and the Administration of Health Insurance in Britain 1913-1936

VOLUME II:

DIPLOMATIC THOUGHT, 1648-1815 (1981/82)

Articles include:

- R. LANGHORNE — The Development of International Conferences 1648-1815
- W. ROOSEN — Daniel Defoe: Realist in International Politics
- M. FORSYTH — Friedrich von Gentz: an Assessment

VOLUME III:

WARFARE AND TACTICS IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY: SOME RECENT RESEARCH (1983/84)

Articles include:

- D. SHOWALTER — Tactics and Recruitment in Eighteenth Century Prussia
- A. BALISCH — Infantry Battlefield Tactics in the 17th and 18th Centuries on the European and Turkish Theatres of War: The Austrian Response to Different Conditions.

VOLUME IV:

STUDIES IN EUROPEAN HISTORY (1648-1763) IN HONOUR OF RAGNHILD HATTON (forthcoming in 1985)

Articles by A. Lossky, S. Oakley, J. Bérenger, E. Gregg, P. Sonnino et al. Back issues can be obtained by sending a cheque or money order for $7.00 to:

The Editor
STUDIES IN HISTORY AND POLITICS
Bishop's University
Lennoxville, Quebec
Canada
J1M 1Z7

Oxford

The Decline of Power 1915-1964

ROBERT BLAKE, Queen's College, Oxford. Here, leading historian Robert Blake charts the sorry decline of the sea-based British Empire as a major imperial power and the mighty ascent of the land-based United States and Soviet Union, and offers a delightfully fresh interpretation of the familiar people and politics of our century. (The Paladin History of England)
July 1985 400 pp.; maps $19.95

British Policy Towards Ireland 1921-1941

PAUL CANNING, Marymount College. Drawing on a wide array of untapped documents, reports, and interviews, this book offers the first detailed picture of British policy towards Ireland—and the public and private opinion that helped to shape it—in the years following the signing of the Anglo-Irish Treaty of 1921.
July 1985 360 pp.; 1 map $29.95

The Restoration

A Political and Religious History of England and Wales 1658-1667

RONALD HUTTON, University of Bristol. This book looks anew at the vital and eventful decade of transformation from the commonwealth of Oliver Cromwell to the Restoration monarchy. Hutton explores how government policy was set and implemented, and the various issues and groups that interacted to influence the shifting currents of the nation's affairs.
July 1985 350 pp.; 12 illus. $32.50

British Economic Growth During the Industrial Revolution

N.F.R. CRAFTS, University College, Oxford. Contrary to traditional views, new research indicates that British economic growth was, in fact, relatively slow during much of the industrial "revolution." This revisionist work is the first to give a fully documented account and analysis of the currently emerging picture of British economic development.
July 1985 220 pp.; 27 tables, 2 graphs $27.50

Again available

Magna Vita Sancti Hugonis

The Life of St. Hugh of Lincoln

Edited by the late DECIMA L. DOUIE, University of Hull, and DAVID HUGH FARMER, University of Reading. Written by Adam of Eynsham, Hugh's chaplain and inseparable companion, this rich biography chronicles the life of the saint who combined ardent religious belief and practice with an active life of administration, legal skill, and patronage of scholars. (Oxford Medieval Texts)
July 1985 Vol. I: 328 pp.; 2 maps $39.95
Vol. II: 488 pp.; 2 maps $45.00

Now in paperback

The English Catholic Church in the Nineteenth Century

EDWARD NORMAN, Cambridge University and Wycliffe College, Toronto. "A sensitive and immensely readable book, easily the fullest and most sympathetic account of Victorian Catholicism available."—Times Higher Education Supplement. "The best single-volume history of the 19th-century Catholic Church."—Choice
July 1985 408 pp. paper $12.95

Prices and publication dates are subject to change.

To order, send check or money order to:
Humanities & Social Sciences Marketing Dept.

Oxford University Press

200 Madison Avenue • New York, NY 10016

MANUSCRIPTS INVITED
for a new series

STUDIES IN BRITISH HISTORY

The Edwin Mellen Press will publish over 60 scholarly books this year in 15 continuing monograph series (TEXTS AND STUDIES IN RELIGION, STUDIES IN HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES, AFRICAN STUDIES, OPERA STUDIES, etc.).

In 1986 The Edwin Mellen Press will initiate a series of volumes dealing with British History.

The sole criterion for publication is that a manuscript make a significant contribution to scholarship.

Our books are printed from camera-ready copy on acid-free paper and bound in full cloth library bindings. They are distributed internationally.

See us on page one of every issue of CHOICE.

Send your proposals or manuscripts for this series to:

BOX 450, LEWISTON, NY 14092

or phone

Herbert Richardson, Editor, at (716) 754-8566