BLACKFRIARS

FOR THE NATION-WIDE MISSION & FOR ALL
WHO WISH TO MAKE PARISH LIFE INTO A FULL-BLOODED CHRISTIAN LIFE

Revolution in a City Parish

by Abbé Michonneau and Père Chéry, o.p.

There is no sense of pride in this report, nor are there any dogmatic statements about the correct method of procedure, but the results go a long way to justify the Abbé's experiments. . . .
Church Times

The methods—and more important—the mentality of the mission-minded clergy at the Rectory of the Sacred Heart church have much to suggest to Catholics in America.
America

. . . our clergy would derive much precious information from this book.
Westminster Cathedral Chronicle

I hope it will be read by all priests and not merely referred to by the more knowledgeable.
Catholic Herald

The account of how the casual French were enlivened into taking an active and enthusiastic part in the Liturgy at the church makes fascinating reading.
Universe

We can well understand the note of excitement that has crept into the publisher's announcement of this book, for it is one of the most stimulating that can ever have appeared from a Catholic publishing house.
