The International Association for Chinese Management Research (IACMR), founded in 2001, is a professional, academic organization to serve scholars, students, managers, and consultants who are interested in advancing knowledge about the management of organizations operating in the Chinese context.

The primary goal of the Association is to promote scholarly studies of the organization and management of firms by:

- Providing a forum for the exchange of ideas and experience among researchers about management research in the Chinese context.
- Facilitating international collaboration between management researchers around the globe.
- Promoting the development of management research capabilities IN and ON China.
- Publishing the journal Management and Organization Review (MOR), dedicated to the mission of the Association (MOR: <http://www.iacmr.org/MOR.htm>).

Regular activities of the IACMR include:

- Bi-annual international conference beginning with the Inaugural Conference in Beijing, China, June 17–20, 2004, and following with the second conference in Nanjing, China, on June 15–18, 2006, the third conference in Guangzhou, China, on June 19–22, 2008, and the fourth will be in Shanghai, China, on June 17–20, 2010.
- Business meeting at the same site as the Academy of Management meeting.
- Special lectures by distinguished professors and business leaders at the business meetings.
- Research seminars by leading Chinese and international scholars in China.
- Research methods workshops for Chinese scholars and doctoral students.
- Official journal Management and Organization Review, published by Wiley-Blackwell.

For detailed information about IACMR activities or membership, visit our website (www.iacmr.org or www.iacmr.org.cn) or contact us by email at iacmr@asu.edu (U.S.A.), iacmr@pku.edu.cn (Beijing) or by phone 1-480-965-4530 (U.S.A.), or 8610-6275-6701 (Beijing).

DECISION SCIENCES

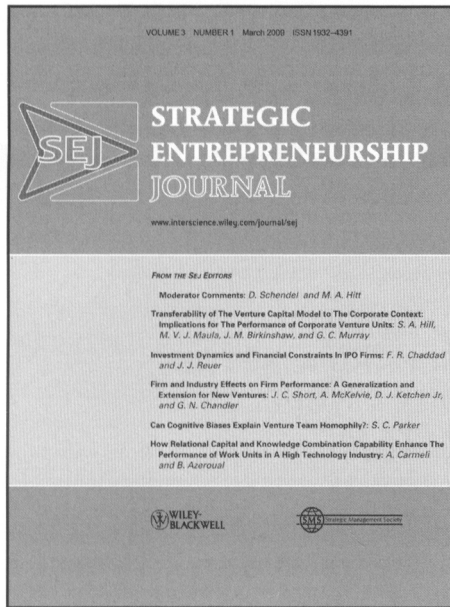

Edited by
VICKI SMITH-DANIELS

The Journal of the Decision Sciences Institute

Decision Sciences, a premier journal of the Decision Sciences Institute, publishes scholarly research about decision making within the boundaries of an organization, as well as decisions involving inter-firm coordination. The journal promotes research advancing decision making at the interfaces of business functions and organizational boundaries. Ground-breaking research articles that enhance managerial understanding of decision making processes and stimulate further research in multi-disciplinary domains are particularly encouraged.

ED ZAJAC

Published on behalf of the Strategic Management Society

Strategic Management Journal is the leading journal for research about strategic management, including both established elements of strategic management and insights about emerging patterns in strategy. SMJ is devoted to advancing scholarship in the strategic research discipline, with the aim of directly developing the generalizable understanding of strategic management and, in turn, producing insights for improving managerial practice.

Such major topics as strategic resource allocation; organization structure; leadership; entrepreneurship and organizational purpose; methods and techniques for evaluating and understanding competitive, technological, social and political environments; planning processes; and strategic decision processes are included in SMJ.

Strategic Management Journal is the flagship publication of the Strategic Management Society (SMS). In 2007 SMS launched a sister publication, Strategic Entrepreneurship Journal.
