

Hobart Town in 1842. Bishop Willson was an active and energetic advocate of colonial asylum reform, and he worthily represented in Australia the opinions and teaching of this Association.

Dr. Greenup, formerly of Salisbury, for the last fourteen years Superintendent of the Parramatta (New South Wales) Lunatic Asylum, holding also the offices of Medical Adviser to the Government and Examiner of Sydney University, has been stabbed by one of the patients in the Asylum, and died in two days after much suffering. His last words were, "No one is to blame for it." He fell a victim to his humane disposition, which led him to be too trustful even of men confined in the criminal division of the Asylum.—'Sydney Morning Herald,' quoted in 'Medical Times,' Sept. 22.
