Revue trimestrielle de philosophie de la connaissance

- s'attache à promouvoir les principes directeurs de la méthodologie ouverte. Image vivante du développement de la philosophie ouverte, elle publie sur cette dernière et ses thèses essentielles des éditoriaux, des articles de fond, des comptes rendus des débats et des discussions sur ses tendances et ses engagements actuels
 - organise des débats et publie des enquêtes sur les questions essentielles de la connaissance moderne (voir par exemple les numéros sur l'idée de complémentarité avec la participation de cinq prix Nobel de physique), sur les fondements de la psychologie, du calcul des probabilités, sur la notion d'analogie, sur le fait et le droit, l'épistémologie de la physique quantique etc.
 - se prête la remise en cause du fondement des disciplines abstraites et des bases des disciplines expérimentales
 - commente les publications récentes et accorde l'hospitalité de ses colonnes aux discussions de principe à leur sujet
 - appelle à la collaboration tous ceux qui entendent participer à la synthèse et à l'intégration de l'ensemble des connaissances modernes
 - procède actuellement à une enquête sur la question brûlante de la rénovation de l'enseignement des mathématiques, de la physique et de la biologie
- dialectica* en un mot est l'organe vivant et la tribune libre de la méthodologie et de la philosophie ouvertes.
