History of Education Society

The History of Education Society is an international scholarly society. Its purposes are to encourage and facilitate research in the history of education; to promote and improve the teaching of history of education; to encourage cooperation among specialists in history of education; and to promote an appreciation of the value of historical perspective in the making of educational policy. The Society is affiliated with the International Standing Conference for the History of Education, and members of the Society are automatically members of the Standing Conference.

THE HENRY BARNARD PRIZE: This prize of $250 is awarded biennially to the best essay in the history of education by a graduate student. The next award will be presented at the fall 1995 meeting of the History of Education Society. The recipient will have the essay published in the History of Education Quarterly.

THE HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY AWARD: This award of $250 will be made biennially to the best essay in the history of education published in any journal over the previous two years. The next award will be presented at the fall 1996 meeting of the History of Education Society. Any article published in 1994 or 1995 will be eligible for the award.

The Society reserves the right not to make awards in years when the Prize Committee judges all entries to be of insufficient quality.

Inquiries regarding these awards should be directed to the chairperson of the Prize Committee: Barbara Beatty, Education Dept., Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA 02181.

OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD: This award of $250 is made biennially to the author of the best book published in the two previous years. The committee will accept nominations but will also make every effort to review all relevant works, whether or not they have been nominated. The award for books bearing 1993 and 1994 publication dates will be announced at the annual meeting of the Society in 1995.

Inquiries regarding the Outstanding Book Award should be directed to the chairperson: Thomas James, Education Department, Box 1938, Brown University, Providence, RI 02912.
