Cambridge Studies in Philosophy and Public Policy

Michel Foucault's Archaeology of Scientific Reason

GARY GUTTING

This book is an important introduction to and critical interpretation of the work of the major French thinker, Michel Foucault. Through comprehensive and detailed analysis of Foucault's major texts, Professor Gutting provides a lucid exposition of Foucault's 'archaeological' approach to the history of thought.

Modern European Philosophy

The Trespass of the Sign

Deconstruction, Theology and Philosophy.

KEVIN HART

In its radical rethinking of Derrida's writings, The Trespass of the Sign presents a reconstruction that is affirmative as well as critical. This is a book which will stimulate discussion among philosophers, theologians and literary theorists.

The State and Justice

An Essay in Political Theory

MILTON FISK

This book offers a new political theory combining elements from the marxist and liberal traditions. It presents the reader with a disturbing view of the contemporary state as at war with itself, illuminating instability within the imperial system.

Studies in Rationality and Social Change

Constructions of Reason

Explorations of Kant's Practical Philosophy

ONORA O'NEILL

By attempting to assimilate Kant's ethical writings to modern conceptions of rationality, action and rights, Onora O'Neill shows how resisting assimilation leads to a more cohesive account of reason and morality.

Millennial Dreams and Moral Dilemmas

Seventh-day Adventism and Contemporary Ethics

MICHAEL PEARSON

This book seeks to show how and why Seventh-day Adventism has addressed moral issues such as the availability of safe abortions and sperm banks, and that such ethical questions are especially relevant to the Adventist church and its development.

An Introduction to Buddhism

Teachings, History and Practices

B. PETER HARVEY

This book is a comprehensive introduction to Buddhist tradition as it has developed in three major cultural areas in Asia, and to Buddhism as it is now developing in the West. It is intended to be a textbook for students of religious and Asian studies but will also be of interest to those who want a general survey of Buddhism and its beliefs.

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Mr Renford Bambrough, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. Articles submitted should conform to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers (Oxford University Press, 1967). The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. they should be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typeset (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

¹H. B. Acton, The Philosophy of Punishment (London: Macmillan, 1969) 192–198.

²R. S. Downie and Elizabeth Telfer, 'Autonomy', Philosophy 46, No. 17 (October 1971), 295.

³Op. cit. note 1, 101–112.

⁴W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Mr Bambrough as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Mr Bambrough at St John's College, Cambridge. All other correspondence should be addressed to the Institute and not to any address in Cambridge.
