

QUADRANT

INDONESIA — SPECIAL ISSUE

No 61

OCTOBER/NOVEMBER 1969

LITERATURE AND CRITICISM

Mochtar Lubis: Of Things Remembered from the Past

A. H. Johns: Through Myth and Dream—The Indonesian Quest for Reality

Taufiq Ismael: Five Poems

W. S. Rendra: Three Poems

Goenawan Muhammad: You Can't Go Home Again

Gerson Poyk: The Swinging Mirror

Nono Anwar Makarim: My Country, or Tantalus Betrayed

Pramudya Ananta Toer: Letter to a Friend from the Country

S. Takdir Alisjabana: Sukarno's Indonesia

POLITICS AND ECONOMICS

Arief Budiman: Ali Sadikin—One-Man Revolt

Soe Hok-gie: Children of Independence

Jacob Oetama: The Indonesian Press

Bernhard Dahm: Sukarno's Ideal

Justus M. van der Kroef: Sukarno-ese and the Future of Indonesian Politics

Soedjatmoko: Foreign Private Investment in a Developing Nation

INDONESIA AND AUSTRALIA

Lional Landry: International Giving — the Road Not Taken

J. A. C. Mackie: The Cultural Agreement — Prospects and Possibilities

This issue—US $1.50 (post paid). Subscriptions
US $5.00 or US $3.50 for full-time students.

QUADRANT—Box C344, Clarence Street PO,
Sydney, NSW 2000 AUSTRALIA