Public Health Nutrition provides a forum for the presentation of original research findings in the field of Public Health Nutrition. In addition, it also includes high quality reviews of key topics and seeks to identify and publish special supplements on major topics of interest to readers. As a contributor you should note and follow the guidelines set out below.

Content:

- Original research findings – published as either full papers of 4000 words, not including tables, figures or references, or Short Communications of about 2000 words on key issues, fast-tracked through the editorial system.
- Topical review papers – the Editors will invite topical reviews and also consider suggestions from authors who should submit an outline of the review in the first instance.
- Editorial comment – including guest editorials on key papers published in the journal.
- Letters to the Editors – addressing material published in Public Health Nutrition.

Submission: All manuscripts must be submitted onto our online submission system: <http://phn.msubmit.net>

Refereeing: All contributions are read by two or more referees to ensure both accuracy and relevance, and revision may thus be required before final acceptance. It is the author's responsibility to obtain written permission to reproduce any material (including text and figures) that has appeared in another publication.

Preparation of Manuscripts: Please refer to our Full Directions to Authors on our website: (<http://www.nutritionociety.org>). You should write in clear and concise English and spelling should follow the Oxford English Dictionary. Authors whose native tongue is not English are assured that in-house editorial attention to their contributions will improve clarity.

Page and line numbers should be inserted. Standard abbreviations (e.g. Fig. and Figs.) and SI units must be used.

The submission must include a statement reporting any conflicts of interest, all sources of funding and the contribution of each author to the manuscript. If there are no conflicts of interest this must be stated. The author will be asked to provide this information during the submission process and should not include it as part of the manuscript. This enables double-blind reviewing.

Arrangement of Papers:

A short title of up to 45 characters should be provided as a running head. The title page should be submitted online as a separate cover letter, not as part of the manuscript. This enables double-blind reviewing.
