

RUDD ON THE NIGERIAN LAW OF EVIDENCE

By G. R. RUDD, Barrister-at-Law; Barrister and Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Nigeria; Director of Legal Education, Nigeria; formerly Senior Lecturer at the Law Society's School of Law, London

This excellent new work, running to around 250 pages, is a much needed textbook on an important subject. The author has drawn his material from the statute and case law of the Federation of Nigeria and the Regions as well as from English law, and includes useful references to the cases of other Commonwealth countries, providing an invaluable work for practitioners, students and police officers.

NWABUEZE'S CONSTITUTIONAL LAW OF THE NIGERIAN REPUBLIC

By B. O. NWABUEZE, LL.M.(LOND.), Barrister-at-Law; Senior Lecturer in Law in the University of Lagos; sometime Commonwealth Scholar

There is no doubt that this comprehensive new work will quickly become a standard textbook for students in the Nigerian Universities as well as providing a useful source of information for anyone interested in the Nigerian Constitution. In a lucid, easy style the author covers everything from the sources of constitutional law and the nature of the constitution, to the individual organs of government and their respective powers.

EZEJIOFOR'S PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS UNDER THE LAW

By GAIUS EZEJIOFOR, LL.M., PH.D.(LOND.), Barrister-at-Law; Lecturer in Law in the University of Lagos; sometime Commonwealth Scholar

In this fascinating new work the author examines the development of the concept of human rights and makes an interesting critical analysis of the extent to which ideas on the subject have been incorporated into legislation. A comparative study is made of human rights in both the "Old Commonwealth" and the "New Commonwealth", so that a wide range of countries is discussed from India and Canada to the newly independent African states.

NWABUEZE'S MACHINERY OF JUSTICE IN NIGERIA

By B. O. NWABUEZE, LL.M.(LOND.), Barrister-at-Law; Senior Lecturer in Law in the University of Lagos; sometime Commonwealth Scholar

There has been a considerable lack of textbooks catering for the needs of African law students and this new work by a Nigerian lawyer will undoubtedly be given a warm welcome. Giving an historical account of the Nigerian legal system from pre-colonial days to the present, the book continues by providing a penetrating analysis of the judicial system as it now stands. The laws, the Courts and the legal profession are all critically discussed and the author puts forward suggestions of his own for possible improvements in the machinery of justice.

Full details on request

---

Butterworths, 88 Kingsway, London, W.C.2

JOURNAL OF NIGERIAN STUDIES

A monthly periodical whose mission is to enrich knowledge about the most populous democratic State in Africa will soon be published under the auspices of private endeavour. It will be a medium of information regarding trends in

Agriculture	Fishery	Music
Anthropology	Forestry	Philosophy
Archaeology	Geography	Physical Education
Banking	Geology	Political Science
Business	History	Psychology
Diplomacy	Home Economics	Religion
Economics	Journalism	Science
Education	Languages	Sociology
Finance	Law	Technology
Fine Arts	Literature	Veterinary Science

and other disciplines as they affect this colossus of Africa.

Among its features will be:

- Introduction to Encyclopaedia Nigeriana.
- Review of certain aspects of Nigerian history.
- Commentary on Nigerian law and procedure.
- Dictionary of Nigerian biography.
- Criticism of latest books and articles in periodicals relating to Nigeria.
- Collection of bibliographical literature on Nigeria.
- Chronological data on Nigeria.
- Articles affecting various facets of Nigerian life.

Payment will be made for accepted literary and graphic contributions at approved rates. Typescripts or manuscripts will be returned if they are accompanied by self-addressed and pre-stamped envelopes.

---

African Book Company Limited
P.M.B. 12022
Lagos, Nigeria