

THEORY and SOCIETY

RENEWAL AND CRITIQUE IN SOCIAL THEORY

Editors: ALVIN GOULDNER, St. Louis. ERVING GOFFMAN, Philadelphia. DEREK PHILLIPS, Amsterdam. PAUL WALTON, Glasgow.
Special Advisory Editor: ROBERT MERTON, New York.

THEORY and SOCIETY is a forum for an emerging worldwide community of social theorists. It is of interest to, and a voice for, all those concerned with the philosophical, intellectual and theoretical foundations of the social sciences and sociological inquiry. Committed to preventing their mutual isolation, THEORY and SOCIETY will foster clear discourse and pointed dialogue among them.

PAST AND PRESENT

a journal of historical studies

Past and Present began publication in 1952. It now appears in February, May, August and November. It aims to publish a wide variety of scholarly and original historical articles primarily concerned with social, economic and cultural changes, and their causes and consequences. The Journal is designed to reach an audience that includes both specialists and nonspecialists; to communicate the results of historical research in readable and lively form; to provide a forum for debate in which historians and scholars in allied subjects take part and to encourage the examination of particular problems and periods for the light they throw on wider issues of historical change.

Past and Present has a very well-established reputation. The French journal Annales has referred to it as "la plus grande revue d'histoire du monde anglophone." A review in the Times Higher Educational Supplement stated that "No historical periodical has done more than Past and Present to influence the study and teaching of history in British universities. . . . It has proved extremely fertile in new interpretations, ideas and controversies. . . . What makes Past and Present so invigorating is that it encourages historians to extend their horizons and ask new questions."

Recent important articles have included the following:

Robert Brenner, "Agrarian Class Structure and Economic Development in Pre-Industrial Europe" (no. 70, Feb. 1976)

Richard J. Evans, "Prostitution, State and Society in Imperial Germany" (no. 70, Feb. 1976)

Gerald M. Sider, "Christmas Mumming and the New Year in Outport Newfoundland" (no. 71, May 1976)

Robert Colls, "'Oh Happy English Children!': Coal, Class and Education in the North-East" (no. 73, Nov. 1976)

James Stephen Taylor, "The Impact of Pauper Settlement 1691–1834" (no. 73, Nov. 1976)

D. N. Dhanagare, "Agrarian Conflict, Religion and Politics: The Moplah Rebellions in Malabar in the Nineteenth and Early Twentieth Centuries" (no. 74, Feb. 1977)

Comparative Studies in Society and History is a forum for presentation and discussion of new research into problems of change and stability that recur in human societies through time or in the contemporary world. It sets up a working alliance between specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities. Debate and review articles bring the general reader in touch with current findings and issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Contributions may be descriptive, analytical or theoretical. Any article not in itself comparative may be accepted if it lends itself to comment that will place it in comparative perspective. Correspondence with the editors prior to the submission of articles will help to enable them to obtain such comment or a companion study. Emphasis in comparative studies may be either on similarities or, if these are significant enough and call for some recasting of generalisations, on differences. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to the Editors, Comparative Studies in Society and History, Department of History, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan 48109.

Two copies of each contribution, preferably accompanied by a stamped, addressed envelope, should be submitted. Both text and footnotes should be clearly typed with double spacing and wide margins; footnotes should appear on separate pages at the end of the article. Illustrations may be included by arrangement with the editors.

Contributors will receive 50 offprints. Any additional offprints must be ordered on receipt of the first proof.

ISI Tear Service, 325 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19106, U.S.A. is authorized to supply copies of separate articles for private use only.

Claims for missing issues will be considered only if made immediately upon receipt of the subsequent issue.
