

The unique illustrated annual record of stage productions in London and Stratford-upon-Avon

The fifth (1984) edition was published in November and like the previous editions features

- ★ over 100 productions from the West End and the fringe, with comprehensive coverage of the RSC and NT
- ★ B&W photographs, reproduced to the highest standard, by Donald Cooper
- ★ introduction and detailed production notes by Michael Coveney, drama critic of the Financial Times
- ★ alphabetical indexes of productions (all editions) and performers (1982 onwards)

This limited edition series is intended equally for the drama enthusiast, professional or teacher and is as enjoyable as it is useful, for browsing or reference.

"I thoroughly commend Donald Cooper's photographic record Theatre Year"

Michael Billington, The Guardian
