

THE MIDDLE EAST STUDIES ASSOCIATION OF NORTH AMERICA, INC. (MESA) was organized in 1966 by a group of American and Canadian scholars on the Middle East to

- promote high standards of scholarship and instruction in this area;
- facilitate communication among scholars through meetings and publications; and
- foster cooperation among persons and organizations concerned with the scholarly study of the Middle East.

MESA focuses on the study of the Middle East since the rise of Islam, principally from the viewpoint of the humanities and the social sciences. Its membership is international.

Persons of scholarly training and/or achievement in Middle East studies are eligible to become Full Members ($75, Retired $35, Joint $100). Other categories of membership are Associate ($75), Student ($35), and Institutional ($500). Each membership is on a calendar-year basis. Membership includes subscriptions to the International Journal of Middle East Studies, the MESA Bulletin, and the MESA Newsletter. Application forms may be obtained from the MESA Secretariat, 1634 East Helen Street, University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona 85721, telephone (520) 621-5850, fax (520) 626-9095.

MESA is a nonprofit corporation with tax-exempt status. Contributions to the Association are deductible under both US Federal and British income tax regulations.

The Dispersion of Egyptian Jewry

Culture, Politics, and the Formation of a Modern Diaspora
Joel Beinin

"The best sort of historical revisionism—sophisticated but unobtrusive in its use of theory, consistently contextual in its assessment of sources and texts, open-ended and suggestive of broader implications in its conclusions."

—James Jankowski, coauthor of Redefining the Egyptian Nation, 1930–1945

Contraversions, $45.00 cloth,
illustrated

Rubber Bullets

Power and Conscience in Modern Israel
