L'entreprise multinationale face au droit.

By Claude Lazarus, Charles Leben, Antoine Lyon-Caen and Bernard Verdier under the direction of Berthold Goldman and Phocion Francescakis. F. 90

This book is a comprehensive, in-depth, interdisciplinary study of the legal problems of multinational enterprises. Their economic analysis of the multinational enterprise is the authors' basis for their legal definition of a multinational enterprise and their analysis of its ties with national jurisdictions. They analyze in detail the problems of economic regulation, taxation, antitrust regulation, and regulation by international organization.

This seminal study of a major contemporary institution is essential for lawyers, political scientists and economists concerned with the multinational enterprise.

THE MULTINATIONAL CORPORATION REGULATORY GUIDEBOOK: A REVIEW AND STATUS REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL ORGANI-ZATION ACTIVITIES IMPACTING MNCs (1978 Edition)

Formerly restricted to clients of IBGC's MNC Monitoring Service, The Multinational Corporation Regulatory Guidebook has recently been made available to a wider readership of corporate executives and counsels, practicing international attorneys, academicians, foreign embassies and university libraries.

The Guidebook is a comprehensive and up-to-date summary and analysis of the International Organization regulatory challenge to MNCs, covering such organizations as the UN Commission on TNCs, UNCTAD, WIPO, the EEC, ILO, OECD, OAS, Non-Aligned Nations Centre, Council of Europe and the international trade unions.

Its purpose is to give readers a detailed and precise understanding of what these bodies are doing to affect MNCs in such areas as information disclosure/reporting, accounting standards, technology transfer, restrictive business practices, taxation, production sourcing, transfer pricing, employment/industrial relations and others.

Many readers have already acclaimed its accuracy, scope and timeliness.
