UR IN RETROSPECT

Edited by

M. E. L. MALLOWAN and D. J. WISEMAN

250 pp. and 31 plates. Price £4 4s.

This volume, dedicated to the memory of Sir Leonard Woolley, contains an account of the man and his work. Many contributions appraise the archaeological and chronological problems in the light of recent discoveries. A variety of subjects ranging from the prehistoric to the Persian periods includes discussions on flora and fauna, topography and hydrography, human sacrifice, statuary, seals and ancient texts relating to Ur.

THE VASSAL - TREATIES of ESARHADDON

by D. J. WISEMAN

105 pp. and 64 plates. Price £3

A full account of the large treaty tablets discovered during excavations by the School at Nimrud in 1955. The most complete text of any Assyrian treaties yet known, drawn up between Esarhaddon and his vassals, including the Medes, in 672 B.C.

The Introduction discusses the historical implications of the documents and their bearing on Old Testament studies. Photographs and hand copies of the cuneiform texts are given.
