The CSSH Book Series extends the reach of one of the liveliest and most selective quarterlies in the social sciences. Each book presents significant work in an area currently being reshaped by new questions and approaches. Combining revised versions of some of the best articles published in Comparative Studies in Society and History with essays newly commissioned in order to round out coverage, the volume illustrates the range of a changing field, possibilities for comparison, and future directions. Essential for scholars engaged in the topic being explored, these books also provide a stimulating introduction to the field for lay persons and students, and serve as the basis for classroom discussion of interdisciplinary methods.

COMPARATIVE STUDIES IN SOCIETY AND HISTORY

ISSN 0010-4175

Founded by Sylvia L. Thrupp

Comparative Studies in Society and History is a forum for new research and interpretation concerning problems of recurrent patterning and change in human societies through time and in the contemporary world. It sets up a working alliance among specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities. Review articles and discussions bring readers into touch with current findings and issues.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

CSSH welcomes submissions. Essays should be written in such a way that complex issues are made intelligible and appealing to erudite readers who are not specialists in the subject under investigation. The editors prefer essays that are concise and will not accept for review essays over 14,000 words, including notes and references. Authors are also required to attach an abstract of no more than 250 words in length, including a concise description of their hypothesis, methodology, key sources, and conclusions. Please include with your submission your full contact information, including your email address.

The editors ask that submissions be presented in a manner that facilitates the work of reviewing and editing. Please submit a digital version of your work by email attachment to: hist-cssh@umich.edu, or on a 3.5-inch diskette or CD. No printed copies are required. The journal works in Microsoft Word. The journal uses Windows-based PCs exclusively: Materials formatted for Macintosh, Linux, or other operating systems will only be accepted by prior arrangement. The work should be formatted in 12-point type and double-spaced throughout, including quotations, notes, and bibliography. Please allow generous margins of an inch or more for editorial corrections. Authors of essays accepted for publication must secure and submit permissions to reproduce photographs or other illustrations and tables as well.

Digital media or hard copies of correspondence may be sent to
