EXCELLENCE IN AFRICAN STUDIES . . .

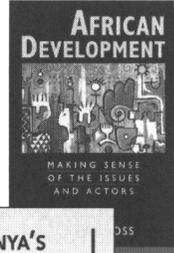

CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC BOOK!

African Development: Making Sense of the Issues and Actors

TODD J. MOSS

“Provides a thorough and critical but fair-minded treatment in a style that is plainspoken and often witty... An excellent resource.”

—Nicolas van de Walle, Foreign Affairs • hc $59.95 • pb $23.50

Kenya's Quest for Democracy: Taming Leviathan

MAKAU MUTUA

“A pleasure to read... Mutua's insightful focus on Kenya's painful constitutional process goes to the heart of Kenyan politics and the nature of the postcolonial state in Africa.”

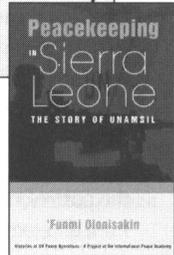

—Frank Holmquist, Hampshire College • hc $65

Peacekeeping in Sierra Leone: The Story of UNAMSIL

FUNMI OLONISAKIN

The inside story of how the UN mission in Sierra Leone was transformed from an embarrassing failure into what is now widely considered one of the most successful peacekeeping missions in UN history. • hc $45 • pb $18.95

Underground People: A Novel

LEWIS NKOSI

“This is one of the best books to have come out of South Africa in recent times... This absorbingly fine novel is a leafed score of reflection and sardonic wit, as well as a gripping page turner.”

—Andries Oliphant, South African Sunday Times • pb $19.95

HANGING BY A THREAD

Cotton, Globalization, and Poverty in Africa

Edited by Leslie C. Gray and William G. Moseley

From global policy debates, to impacts on the natural environment, to the economic and social implications of this process, Hanging by a Thread explores cotton production in the postcolonial period from different disciplinary perspectives and in a range of national contexts. This approach makes the globalization process palpable by detailing how changes at the macroeconomic level play out on the ground in the world's poorest region.

304 pages, illus., hc $24

Copublished with the Nordic Africa Institute, Uppsala

SLAVERY, EMANCIPATION AND COLONIAL RULE IN SOUTH AFRICA

Wayne Dooling

"This is a major work of South African history, putting economics and exploitation back where they belong, in the centre of the country's historiography."—Robert Ross, Leiden University

Slavery, Emancipation and Colonial Rule in South Africa examines the rural Cape Colony from the earliest days of Dutch colonial rule in the mid-seventeenth century to the outbreak of the South African War in 1899.

256 pages, hc $26.95

Copublished with the University of KwaZulu-Natal Press, South Africa

HETEROSEXUAL AFRICA?

The History of an Idea from the Age of Exploration to the Age of AIDS

Marc Epprecht

"Marc Epprecht boldly challenges a whole series of boundaries and blind spots in the history of African scholarship. This book should make for valuable controversy—both intellectually and politically—in contemporary Africa."

—T. Dunbar Moodie, Hobart and William Smith Colleges

Heterosexual Africa? explores how Africa came to be defined as a "homosexual-free zone" and why this idea still flourishes.

240 pages
hc $39.95, pb $19.95

SLAVERY IN THE GREAT LAKES REGION OF EAST AFRICA

Edited by Shane Doyle and Henri Médard

Slavery in the Great Lakes Region of East Africa is a collection of ten studies by the most prominent historians of the region. Slavery was more important in the Great Lakes region of Eastern Africa than often has been assumed, and Africans from the interior played a more complex role than was previously recognized. The essays in this collection reveal the connections between the peoples of the region as well as their encounters with the conquering Europeans.

288 pages
hc $59.95, pb $26.95

Copublished with James Currey, Oxford

WAR IN PRE-COLONIAL EASTERN AFRICA

The Patterns and Meanings of State-Level Conflict in the 19th Century
Richard Reid

War in Pre-Colonial Eastern Africa examines the nature and objectives of violence in the region in the nineteenth century. It is particularly concerned with highland Ethiopia and the Great Lakes. It will be of use to those interested in military history and to anyone involved in modern development and conflict resolution seeking to understand the deeper historical roots of African warfare.

256 pages
hc $59.95, pb $24.95

Copublished with James Currey, Oxford

THE ROOTS OF AFRICAN CONFLICTS

The Causes & Costs
288 pages, pb $24.95

THE RESOLUTION OF AFRICAN CONFLICTS

The Management of Conflict Resolution and Post-conflict Reconstruction
224 pages, pb $24.95

Edited by Alfred Nhemba and Paul Tiyambe Zeleza

“These two volumes . . . offer sober and serious analyses, eschewing the sensationalism of the western media and the sophistry of some of the scholars in the global North for whom African conflicts are at worst a distraction and at best a confirmation of their pet racist and petty universalist theories.”

THE INTESTINES OF THE STATE

Youth, Violence, and Belated Histories in the Cameroon Grassfields

Nicolas Argenti

"Argenti shows how centuries of inequity have made young people the brunt of unspeakable exploitation and violence. Such abiding trauma finds little voice in modern, monolithic narratives of state. But youth are still marginal in the postcolonial present, embodying most acutely the ghosts of catastrophes past."—Jean Comaroff, University of Chicago

PAPER $28.00

PILLARS OF THE NATION

Child Citizens and Ugandan National Development

Kristen E. Cheney

"Kristen Cheney shows how Ugandan children in diverse and often problematic situations seek to establish through their own agency a meaningful life not always in agreement with cultural codes, national social agendas, and ideologies enforced by international agencies and programs to assist them. This is an impressive and original work."—Philip Kilbride, Bryn Mawr College

THE ORAL AND BEYOND

Doing Things with Words in Africa

Ruth Finnegan

"To read this tour de force across time, space, and language practices is pure delight. Drawing upon her extensive intellectual engagement with African oral 'tradition' or 'oral literature,' Finnegan delivers a beautifully written book based on almost half a century of empirical research and comparative analysis."—Alessandro Duranti, University of California, Los Angeles

YORÙBÁ BĀTÁ GOES GLOBAL

Artists, Culture Brokers, and Fans

Debra L. Klein

“Klein’s writing is fresh and clear and she has a deft eye for detail. What makes her approach so compelling is the developing focus on the concrete relationships, performance genres, transactions, and elements of cultural style which bring together the global dimensions of the study.”—Andrew Apter, University of California, Los Angeles

CULTURE IN CHAOS

An Anthropology of the Social Condition in War

Stephen C. Lubkemann

“Sharp, eloquent, and utterly persuasive, this remarkable ethnography changes the way we look at violence and war. In Lubkemann’s skillful hands, we are witness to not just resilience but the constant forging of new social fabric in the most improbable of human conditions.”—Caroline Bledsoe, Northwestern University

PAPER $25.00

WORRIES OF THE HEART

Widows, Family, and Community in Kenya

Kenda Mutongi

“This captivating book evokes the human experience of living under colonialism in rural East Africa better than any other study I can think of. Widows and their families are Mutongi’s focus, but this is less a history of widows than it is a history of the twentieth century in the Maragoli district of western Kenya through widows’ eyes.”

A Culture of Corruption

Everyday Deception and Popular Discontent in Nigeria

Daniel Jordan Smith

"[Smith's] book offers a sophisticated and deeply troubling portrait of a contemporary Nigeria."

—Nicolas van de Walle, Foreign Affairs

"Smith has written a sharply critical, yet finely judged, book that every student of African politics should pay heed to."

—Ebenezer Obadare, International Affairs

"Anyone who is concerned with the discussion of corruption and how it relates to the development of African economies should read Smith's book."

JOURNALS OF
THE AFRICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION
AVAILABLE IN JSTOR

Since 2002, the African Studies Association has worked with JSTOR, an online digital archive, to provide access to complete back runs of ASA journals. Users may search, browse, view, and print full-text PDF versions of articles in three ASA journals, from their first year published through all but the current and three previous volumes:

African Issues (1971)
African Studies Review (1958)
History in Africa (1974)

These journals are available as part of JSTOR's Arts & Sciences II and the Complement Collections. Users at institutions that participate in any of these collections can access the publications directly at www.jstor.org.

Individual articles from the back issues of ASA's publications are also available for purchase at $12.00 per article through JSTOR's Publisher Sales Service, a collaborative initiative to facilitate access to important scholarly literature for independent scholars. For more information on this program, please visit http://www.jstor.org/about/pss\_title\_list.html.

JSTOR is proud to collaborate with the African Studies Association to preserve and make widely available the historic literature of our field.

JSTOR is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to helping the scholarly community discover, use, and build upon a wide range of intellectual content in a trusted digital archive. Its overarching aims are to preserve a record of scholarship for posterity and to advance research and teaching in cost-effective ways. JSTOR collaborates with organizations that can help achieve its objectives and maximize the benefits for the scholarly community
