NEW JOURNAL

European Business Organization Law Review

Editor-in-Chief: Prof. Talia Einhorn
(T.M.C. Asser Institute, The Hague)

Private law is the charter of a free society and business organizations are the key to their development: companies and groups of companies play a decisive role in the conduct of business in the modern, industrial and post-industrial European society. It is therefore their ability to organize according to their business needs, irrespective of national borders, that will ensure the economic success of the internal market. The establishment of the European Union presupposes the freedom of companies to “enter” and “exit” Member States’ markets, engage in business activities and offer the whole range of goods and services. For businesses originating both within and outside (especially in those countries about to join) the EU, this subject is of the utmost importance, meritorious of a dedicated, regularly published journal that would serve as a platform for the necessary scholarly debate.

European Business Organization Law Review will publish articles, case-notes and book reviews, written by experts in the field critically analyzing national company laws, European Community company law and related legal topics.

European Business Organization Law Review is published in cooperation with the T.M.C. Asser Instituut, Institute for Private and Public International Law, International Commercial Arbitration and European Law, The Hague.

ISSN 1566-7529

AUTHORS' GUIDE

CONTENTS OF THE NILR

The NILR invites the submission of articles on legal questions, legal developments, commentaries, analysis and comprehensive overviews in the fields of public international law, private international law and comparative law. These articles must be original and may be of any length up to a maximum of around 35 printed pages each of approximately 450 words. Shorter articles and commentaries of between 5 and 10 printed pages are also published.

The NILR also publishes book reviews and reports of Dutch judicial decisions involving questions of private international law. These have a maximum length of 5 and 15 printed pages, respectively.

The NILR is an English-language publication.

SUBMISSION OF MATERIAL

Authors are requested to send three copies of each manuscript to the Secretariat: P.O.Box 30461, 2500 GL The Hague, The Netherlands. All submitted material should be in English and should be typed using a personal computer (preferably using WordPerfect). Material may be submitted at any time of the year and, if accepted for publication, will be published at the earliest available opportunity.

FEES

Authors will not receive a fee, but will be presented with the issue of the NILR in which their contribution appears, together with 25 off-prints of their work in the case of articles and case reports and 5 off-prints in the case of book reviews. Additional off-prints may be ordered, upon payment of a standard fee.

COPYRIGHT

Copyright is exclusively vested in the NILR and the author(s) jointly. Acceptance of the Board of Editors' offer to publish implies, however, that authors agree to an embargo on publication elsewhere, either in English or another language, for a period of two years following the date of publication in the NILR.

The agreement of the Board of Editors will be necessary before the article can be subsequently published elsewhere.

EDITORIAL POLICY AND DISCRETION

The Board of Editors exclusively reserves the right to suggest modifications and/or additions to all materials accepted for publication, and further reserves the right at any time to reject or to withhold or postpone the publication of any material.

The decision of the Board of Editors will be final.

REVISION

All material accepted for publication may, at the discretion of the Managing Editor, be subjected to linguistic and grammatical revision. This will apply mainly to contributions written by authors whose mother-tongue is not English.

In all such cases the revised text will be sent to the author for his/her approval.

CORRECTION OF PROOFS AND MODIFICATIONS TO THE TEXT

Authors will receive galley proofs for correction. All accepted material will have been adapted and type-set in the NILR house-style. The NILR does not accept any significant departures from its house-style. Examples of the house-style are available upon request.

Authors may make minor changes or additions to the galley proofs. Substantial modifications, however, may only be made in consultation with and with the consent of the Board of Editors.
