

A Preface to Democratic Theory

ROBERT A. DAHL

An original exploration of problems left unsolved by traditional democratic theory, this book examines two influential "models" and argues that they no longer explain how modern democracies operate. $3.00

Forests and French Sea Power, 1660-1789

PAUL WALDEN BAMFORD

In his research into the forest resources available to the French navy during the ancien régime, Mr. Bamford goes far toward explaining why France was the loser in the long duel with England for the control of commerce and the extension of empire. $5.00

Pioneer Public Service: An Administrative History of the United Canadas, 1841-1867

J. E. HODGETTS

The evolution and structure of the administrative machine which, with few fundamental changes, still serves the Canadian nation, and an attempt to acknowledge the contribution of the public servant to the welfare of the pioneer community. $5.50

On the History and Method of Economics

FRANK H. KNIGHT

This collection of Professor Knight's major articles opens with his essay on "Economics" from the Encyclopaedia Britannica, and continues with characteristic discussions of the ethical significance of economics in contemporary society. $6.00
