

Letter from the Editors

The second issue of 1994 contains three of the historiographical evaluations presented at the founding meeting of the Forum on European Expansion and Global Interaction (FEEGI) at Brown University earlier this year. We believe that these contributions, by Pierre H. Boulle, Karen Ordahl Kupperman and Anthony Russell-Wood, will help our readers in keeping their own research in track. As a complement to these three essays, we have published a historiographical contribution by Henk Wesseling on modern overseas historiography in the Netherlands.

Unfortunately, this volume is the last one to which our editorial assistants, Ellen Klinkers and Wim Klooster, have contributed their energies. We say goodbye to both with considerable reluctance, and we thank them for their work for the journal over the past two years, wishing them success for the final stages of their doctoral dissertations.
