

Establishing the DM profession in Germany

Gustav Pruss

National Association of German Disability Managers, Germany. Gustav.Pruss@vdim.de

We seek to

- Found an organisation which represents the interests of the disability manager and disability management (VDIMA e. V).
- Advertise campaigns to inform about the general objectives of professional disability management.
- Build relationships to all the stakeholders especially to decision-makers in politics.
- Offer further vocational training to the disability manager.