Africa Bibliography

Editor

Terry Barringer, Wolfson College, Cambridge, United Kingdom

This large and authoritative guide to works in African studies has been published under the auspices of the International African Institute annually since 1984. From 2011 a fully searchable, consolidated bibliography will be available to subscribers online.

The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material: monographs, chapters in edited volumes, journal articles, and pamphlets. It covers all regions of Africa, including North Africa. It lists works published in English as well as a number of other languages: Portuguese, French, Italian, German, Swahili, Spanish and Afrikaans. The bibliography categorises by region, country and subject. It includes an author index and a detailed thematic index. Publications principally in the social and environmental sciences, humanities and arts, and some items from the medical, biological and natural sciences are recorded.

The bibliography includes materials on Africa published in non-specialist scholarly journals, in addition to specialist Africa publications. As an annual publication, it records the previous year's published work in its field, with provision for retrospective inclusion of earlier items. It is prepared in association with the International African Institute's journal Africa.

Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies

Published for the School of Oriental and African Studies

Editors

Ulrich Pagel, School of Oriental and African Studies, UK

Konrad Hirschler, School of Oriental and African Studies, UK

The Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies (BSOAS) is an international journal publishing research and reviews in the arts, humanities, law and languages relating to Africa and Asia. BSOAS is distinguished by the quality of its scholarship and the range of its coverage. BSOAS welcomes submissions on the history, religions, languages, literatures, laws, artistic cultures, and related fields pertaining to the societies and countries of Asia and Africa. Authors are encouraged to write in such a way that they be understood by interested non-specialists. As well as research articles, BSOAS publishes short notes and communications, obituaries of significant scholars, and review articles that situate important new publications in their wider scholarly context. BSOAS also has a comprehensive section where new publications are reviewed or, when appropriate, more briefly noted.

Performing Space in Urban Africa

This part special issue proposes an approach to urban life in Africa that analyses how African urban dwellers respond to challenges of their times by producing, transforming and performing social spaces. The contributions explore urbanity, performative practices and the production of space. Looking at performed urban spaces rather than the city per se, the articles bring together and create a dialogue between African urban studies and performance studies.
