

FROM BROWN TO MEREDITH

The Long Struggle for School Desegregation in Louisville, Kentucky, 1954-2007

TRACY E. K'MEYER

"Here is an alternate history—grounded in oral history—of biracial efforts to support successful desegregation, especially through busing, that most maligned of means to achieve integration. We glimpse here what it would have taken, and what Louisville partially achieved, to make the promise of Brown a reality."

—Kathy Nasstrom,
University of San Francisco

GREATER THAN EQUAL

African American Struggles for Schools and Citizenship in North Carolina, 1919-1965

SARAH CAROLINE THUESEN

"Historically rich and convincingly rendered. Thuesen addresses conflicting interpretations of black educational advocacy prior to desegregation without losing sight of poignant individual stories."

—Vanessa Siddle Walker, Emory University

384 pages $45.00

BROWN'S BATTLEGROUND

Students, Segregationists, and the Struggle for Justice in Prince Edward County, Virginia

JILL OGLINE TITUS

"Excellent. . . . Looks beyond the contours of the familiar legal and political narrative to focus instead on the determined yet often futile and heartbreaking efforts of black parents and a handful of white supporters to overcome fierce resistance from white segregationists and ensure a modicum of justice for their children."

—Journal of American History

296 pages $34.95
