

NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All editorial communications should be addressed to the Secretary, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LA, in the first instance.

Contributions submitted for publication in the Society's Journal should be typed in double spacing on paper of A4 size, leaving a margin of at least 30 mm. at the left-hand side. Sheets should be numbered consecutively at the top right-hand corner. Notes, numbered consecutively through the article, should be typed on a separate sheet or sheets at the end and not at the foot of each page. Contributors are reminded that the Journal has special need of a number of shorter articles for each issue, not exceeding 2000 words in length. Such contributions can often be printed more promptly than longer works.

Authors are urged to study the conventions employed in recent issues of the Journal, particularly the style of citation of books and periodical articles, and the bibliographical information inserted at the head of reviews. Contributions should be submitted in a form ready for the printer; later corrections, whether involving over-running or not, can be accepted only at the Editor's discretion and will incur a charge to the author. Authors will receive page proofs; galleys will not normally be sent. Note should also be taken of the fact that postal losses have been occurring in the central London districts during recent months. If typescripts submitted are not acknowledged within a month of dispatch, suitable allowance being made for overseas mails, the Secretary or Editor should be contacted, preferably (when convenient) by telephone.

Authors of articles will be supplied with 25 free copies of offprints. Additional copies can be obtained on request at moderate charges; authors are asked to notify the Editor of their requirements when returning proofs.

MEMBERSHIP AND SUBSCRIPTION

1. Any person desirous of becoming a Fellow must be nominated by one Fellow and seconded by another, of whom one must act on a personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow; and the nominating Fellows shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, address, and occupation, or status, and shall state to which class the candidate desires to be admitted. Provided always that for persons domiciled abroad it shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate, to dispense with these conditions.

2. The annual subscription for each class of Fellow is:—

	£
Fellows resident in the United Kingdom	15.00
Fellows residing in the British Isles who covenant to pay for 7 years	15.00
Fellows residing abroad	12.00

3. Library Associates, elected for five years only	5.00
Libraries	15.00

4. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate be elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription paid by him shall cover the year beginning on the 1st January next after his election.

5. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

Note: Payments by Deed of Covenant can be made only by Fellows who pay United Kingdom Income Tax. The attention of applicants residing abroad is drawn to the back cover of the Journal where the U.S. and Canadian dollar equivalents of these subscriptions are given.

When a candidate is proposed for election, this form should be completed in block letters and sent to THE SECRETARY, ROYAL ASIATIC SOCIETY, 56 QUEEN ANNE STREET, LONDON W1M 9LA.

Chinese Revolutionary

Memoirs 1919–1949 Wang Fan-Hsi

Translated by Gregor Benton

Wang-Fan-Hsi joined the Chinese Community Party during the 1920s, and was sent to Moscow for training, where he came under the influence of the Trotskyist opposition. Expelled from the Party for his views, he spent most of the years from 1931 to 1937 in Kuomintang prisons, being released just as the Japanese invaded. His memoirs are the only published account from a revolutionary's viewpoint of a still largely obscure period in Chinese history. £12.50

Strategies of British India

Britain, Iran, and Afghanistan, 1798 – 1850

M. E. Yapp

The subject of this book is the formulation and execution of British policy in the region between the Caspian and the Indus during the first half of the nineteenth century. Using a large selection of documents, the author considers developments at all levels, from the Cabinet to the frontier agent. £35

Early Sikh Tradition

A Study of the Janam Sakhis

W. H. McLeod

This is a study of the Panjabi narratives of the life of Guru Nanak, known as janam sakhis, which are important as examples of hagiographic growth processes, as sources of Panjab history for the post-Nanak period within which they developed, as a cohesive factor in subsequent Sikh history, and as the earliest works of Panjabi prose. Illustrated £15

Symbols of Eternity

The Art of Landscape Painting in China

Michael Sullivan

This book, designed for the general reader approaching Chinese landscape painting as a new experience, introduces the underlying philosophical ideas, aims, and achievements of the painters, and the main stages in the development of the art over nearly two thousand years. Illustrated £10

Foreign Devils on the Silk Road

Peter Hopkirk

For the first time the story is told of the explorers who, early this century, rediscovered the lost cities of the ancient Silk Road across Central Asia and carried off their treasures.

'An absorbing account of the treasure-trove race.'
