The PLACE-NAMES of SURREY

By J. E. B. GOVER, A. MAWER, and F. M. STENTON
in collaboration with ARTHUR BONNER

Being VOLUME XI of the English Place-Name Society's Survey

1 county and 6 distribution maps in pocket of cover. 21s. net

Or together with Vol. I, Part 2, 24s. net

THE volume includes those parts of the county which have now been absorbed in the County of London, and the pages on these districts include a full treatment of early street-names in such areas as Southwark, Bermondsey, and Rotherhithe. Here and in other parts of the county, the authors of the volume have had to deal with several names of newly developed areas, and the task of tracing the history of such names has not always been an easy one. The work of the editors has been carried out in close co-operation with Mr A. Bonner, who has been collecting Surrey Place-Name material for many years, and throughout the work the editors have had much help from Surrey landowners who have given access to unpublished documents in their possession, and from Surrey topographers and antiquaries who have freely shared with them their knowledge of the county. The volume deals fully with the much discussed Coldharbour name and also with the numerous place-names containing the element Friday.

'A fascinating volume.' Professor ERNEST WEEKLEY in The Observer.

A NEW BATSFORD 'HERITAGE' BOOK

In Demy 8vo (8½ × 5½ in.), attractively bound in cloth, price 7s. 6d. net (by post 8s.).

THE CATHEDRALS OF ENGLAND

By HARRY BATSFORD, Hon. A.R.I.B.A., and CHARLES FRY
With a Foreword by HUGH WALPOLE

Containing 128 pages of text and 133 superb photographic illustrations comprising General Views, Plans, Details, Craftsmanship, Monuments, Chantries, Screens, Carving, Windows, &c., with a plan of each fabric, a frontispiece in colour and 32 pen drawings by Brian Cook.

This is the first book to be issued on the English Cathedrals in which the new technique of photography, with its tremendous advances in lighting and effect, has been used to depict the mellow beauty of these grand old buildings.

Its illustrations alone are enough to make the volume a treasured possession, not merely for the antiquary, but for every man and woman who loves and cherishes these splendid landmarks of our national heritage.
