The Eight Beatitudes

By Rev. CLEMENT H. CROCK. 20/-

This volume was written, not with an intentional appeal to a certain group, but for all classes and especially for the benefit and guidance of those disturbed over their own personal uneasiness and bewilderment, as well as for those who are much disturbed over the confusion of the entire world as a whole.

It is at once—a meditation, a philosophy of life, spiritual reading of the most rewarding kind, a guide for all, and especially for the Catholic who is trying to follow Christ more closely.

OTHER WORKS BY THE SAME AUTHOR

Ontology

By Canon F. VAN STEENBERGHEN. Translated by Rev. M. J. Flynn, Ph.D., S.T.D. 27/- (The fourth English translation of The Philosophical Series of the Higher Institute of Philosophy, Louvain).

Like its predecessor, Epistemology, this work was written for students who are receiving their first introduction to philosophy. It was not written for specialists, and it does not claim in any way to be an exhaustive study of the problems of metaphysics.
