The New Heavens and New Earth

Political Religion in America

CUSHING STROUT

"Strout's thesis, developed in scholarly but not 'academic' style, should make overall sense out of America's complex religious scene. . . . This makes his book a major contribution to, conceivably a turning point in, the study. It is certainly the best available guide to the perplexed professor who is called upon to introduce this generation of students to the story of religious developments in the United States."—SIDNEY E. MEAD and WILLIAM D. TACKENBERG, Church History

"Professor Strout. . . has succeeded brilliantly in this fresh interpretation of de Tocqueville's theme of the integral relation of liberty, law, and religion in a society where church and state are separated. He brings his considerable learning to a penetrating inquiry, which ranges over religion and politics in America from John Cotton to Reinhold Niebuhr, from the thought of John Locke to Malcolm X. . . . A solid historical-intellectual inquiry."—Publishers Weekly

The State of The Church (or the Church of the State?)

It should be neither, asserts Leonard Verduin in this fascinating examination of church-state relationships throughout the centuries.

Persistent efforts to establish a sacral society, Verduin believes, demonstrates a fundamental misunderstanding of New Testament Christianity. He traces the history of the conflict between the "hybrid" (church-state alliance) and the "rival" church—from Jesus, through the Reformation, to colonial America.

Challenging and perceptive, The Anatomy of a Hybrid is directed to all those who are concerned about the church's nature and role, and its future within society.

CHRISTIAN HALL of FAME SERIES

DID YOU KNOW . . .

- That Fanny Crosby was blind and wrote 8,000 Hymn-Poems?
- That Adoniram Judson lost two wives and six children in his Burmese Ministry?
- That C. T. Studd gave away $150,000.00 to Christian work?
- That George Mueller prayed in 7½ million dollars?
- That T. Dewitt Talmages church burned to the ground three times?

YOU can read these and many other interesting, unusual and uplifting facts about the heroes of the Christian Faith.

These 40 Biographical sketches tell a complete - childhood, conversion, call of God, marriage, crisis, ministries. When and where- and much else. 20 years of study in this field provides an accurate, authoritative and inspiring presentation.

Jack Hyles, pastor of the world's largest Sunday School. "We are delighted to have Ed Reese teach at our college. The students thoroughly enjoy his course on Christian Biographies. We trust these booklets will have wide circulation."

Wilber M. Smith, world recognized authority on books. ". . . The more time elapses, the more do we long to know something about the lives of these men. For the most part, we look in vain. Mr. Reese is doing a splendid piece of work in acquainting this generation with biographical sketches of these great men of God. I trust these sketches will be enthusiastically received, and leave a blessing upon the hearts of those who are fortunate to make themselves available to this inspiring material."

Ted Engstrom, Executive Vice President of World Vision. "I am glad that you are pushing ahead on this Christian biography program . . . it would have tremendous appeal and interest, it seems to me."
