

Early Modern Women

AN INTERDISCIPLINARY JOURNAL

Winner of the 2013 Council of Editors of Learned Journals Voyager Award

for excellence in journals covering the period 1500–1800

Invites submissions of articles on the topic of women and gender in the early modern period. The Journal offers an award of $1000 for the best article in each volume.

Early Modern Women: An Interdisciplinary Journal is the only journal devoted solely to the interdisciplinary and global study of women and gender spanning the late medieval through early modern periods. Each volume gathers essays on early modern women from every country and region, by scholars from a wide range of academic disciplines, including art history, cultural studies, music, history, languages and literatures, political science, religion, theatre, history of science, and history of philosophy.
