

PUBLICATIONS

ALBERDI-SARMIENTO AWARD LECTURES

The Center for Latin American Studies of Arizona State University has embarked upon the publication of all of the Alberdi-Sarmiento Award Lectures, presented with permission and cooperation of Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz of La Prensa, who established the Award in 1950. It is awarded annually to a distinguished journalist, writer, or public figure of the Americas as an expression of hemispheric friendship, with the objective of contributing to Inter-American cooperation. Each recipient delivers a lecture on the Inter-American theme upon conferral, and it is these lectures that the Center will translate and publish as a series. The publication series began in October 1972 with The Challenge to Pan Americanism by Donald Marquand Dozer.

CIDOC

The Centro Intercultural de Documentacion has recently published three more volumes of the Catálogo de Adquisiciones. These volumes contain bibliographic references for all of the acquisitions made by the Archivos CIDOC from June 1968 to June 1971. The documentation is by topic, and within each topic, by country.

Volume No. 1 pertains to religion; No. 2 contains listings in the social sciences; No. 3 is made up of bibliography. To facilitate the use of the catalog, two indexes are included: alphabetical and systematic.

ENCICLOPEDIA BOLIVIANA

The Editorial Los Amigos del Libro has undertaken the publication of a series entitled Enciclopedia Boliviana which attempts to give a complete panorama of past and present Bolivia, on the basis of monographs and special studies. The complete work will consist of 50 volumes, of which 20 have already been published.

INDAL DOSSIERS

INDAL, Información Documental de América Latina, began to publish dossiers of 200 to 300 pages of documentation on a monthly basis beginning in November 1972. A subscription also includes two volumes of analytical bibliography each year. Dossiers Nos. 1 through 12 (1972-73) contained documentation of all types of the last three years of the sociopolitical life of Uruguay. The first dossier reproduces the declarations and documents of the most important guerrilla movements in Guatemala, Uruguay, Bolivia, Colombia, and Venezuela for the years 1968-1972. For the years 1973-1974, the dossiers will refer principally to Argentina, Chile, Bolivia, and Venezuela.

Latin American Research Review

Subscriptions are available at: US $128 a year, payable by cash or a first payment of $40 plus four monthly payments of $24. A special subscription without bibliography volumes is offered to professors and graduate students subscribing personally at a rate of US $110, payable in cash or the first payment of $34 plus four monthly payments of $21. Subscription rates include surface mail postage. If you want to have the dossiers airmailed, indicate it clearly on your subscription order. For more information on the INDAL dossiers write: Información Documental de América Latina, 220 Waversebaan, 3030 Haverlee, Belgium.

IWGIA DOCUMENT SERIES

The International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA) is a nonpolitical and nonreligious organization concerned with the oppression of ethnic groups in various countries. The IWGIA publishes documentation and analyses of the situation of oppressed groups and attempts to organize the interest and expertise of social scientists and others in relation to the urgent problems of these groups.

Eight documents have been published so far, of which most are concerned with Latin America. They include the following titles: Declaration of Barbados, Tribal Survival in the Amazon: The Campa Case by John H. Bodley, Bibliography of the Indigenous Problem and Policy of the Brazilian Amazon Region (1957–1972) by René Fuerst, The Urgent Situation of the Cuiva Indians of Colombia by Bernard Arcand, and The Forest Indians in the Present Political Situation of Peru by Stefano Varese. IWGIA documents can be obtained through membership of the IWGIA. The membership fee for one year is US $3 for individuals and $6 for institutions. Address inquiries to IWGIA, Frederiksholms Kanal 4 A, DK-1220 Copenhagen K, Denmark.

LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES WORKING PAPERS

The Latin American Studies Program at Indiana University has announced a new publication series of working papers. The following three studies have already been published under this new series: Social Integration and Social Stability in a Colonial Spanish American City, Caracas, 1519–1627, Stephanie B. Blank, 1972, $1.00; New Perspectives on Modern Argentina, Alberto Ciria and others, 1972, $1.95; and Latin American Resources at Indiana University, 1972, $1.00. Send orders (with full remittance) to: Latin American Studies, Publication Series, Lindley Hall 311, Indiana University, Bloomington, IN 47401.

URBANIZATION

The Ford Foundation has recently conducted a two-year survey of urbanization in developing countries. The survey was carried out by Foundation staff members, assisted by consultant specialists with either regional or topical competence. Working papers were prepared on relevant topics, and now that they are completed, the Foundation is making them available to others who share its concern with the urban condition.

The working papers and special studies are not based upon original research but were prepared as contributions to a more fully rounded understanding of urbanization in the less developed countries. The papers are available without charge. Address request for information or orders to: Office of Reports, Ford Foundation, 320 East 43 Street, New York, New York 10017.

NEW AND SUSPENDED PERIODICALS

Actual Revista de la Universidad de Los Andes began publication in 1971. Salvador Garmendia is editor-in-chief of the new journal which publishes interdisciplinary articles and booknotes. Articles are solicited but should be accompanied with a bibliographic note about the author. Direct correspondence to: Revista ACTUAL, Universidad de Los Andes, Apartado 277, Mérida, Venezuela.

Chasqui is a literary journal devoted to Latin American literature and is now in its second year of publication. The journal is published three times during the academic year—November, February, and May. Current subscription rate is $4.00 per year. Chasqui publishes short articles, notes on literary events, book reviews, and bibliography in English, Spanish, and Portuguese. Chasqui invites the collaboration of professors, advanced graduate students, and creative writers. Send inquiries, subscriptions, or copies of your work (in duplicate with return postage) to: Chasqui, Prof. Howard M. Fraser, Dept. of Spanish and Portuguese, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706.

The Guyana Journal provides reference material on Guyana's external relations and is issued by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. The Journal began publication in 1971. Publication schedule and manner of obtaining the publication are unknown. For information write: Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Guyana House Annexe, Carmichael Street, Georgetown, Guyana.

Hispanamerica, Revista de Literatura began publication in July 1972. Issue No. 1 was dedicated to Argentine writers. Hispanamerica will offer texts by emerging and unknown authors, interviews, and articles of literary criticism in history.

The director of Hispanamerica is Saúl Sosnowski. Subscriptions are as follows: students, $5.00; non-students, $10.00; institutions and libraries, $15.00; partons, $25.00. Address subscriptions and correspondence to Saúl Sosnowski, 4330 Hartwick Road, Apt. 608, College Park, Maryland 20740.

The format of the quarterly publication of the Center for Latin American Studies, Arizona State University, Latin American Digest has been revised. The

Latin American Research Review

Digest will now carry short articles by Latin American specialists and a new column on Ibero-American–East Asian relations.

Montalban is a new publication of the Facultad de Humanidades y Educación and the Institutos Humanísticos de Investigación of the Universidad Católica “Andrés Bello,” Caracas, Venezuela. Montalban will publish articles and book reviews in the field of the humanities, understood in a broad sense. Issue No. 1 was published in 1972 and contains over 500 pages. Publication schedule is unknown. Price per copy is: US $5. Address inquiries to: Revista Montalban, Universidad Católica “Andrés Bello,” Aptdo. 29068, Caracas, Venezuela.

Review is published three times a year, spring, fall and winter by the Center for Inter-American Relations, Inc. It began publication late in 1970.

Review publishes views, reviews, interviews, and news on Latin American literature. Subscription rates: $5.00 yearly within the United States; $5.25 Mexico and Canada; $5.75 foreign. Subscriptions, manuscripts, and inquiries should be addressed to: Review, Center for Inter-American Relations, 680 Park Avenue, New York, New York 10021.

The National Council of Associations for International Studies in cooperation with the International Population Program at Cornell University began to issue an experimental newsletter on population studies at the undergraduate level in 1972.

Teaching Notes About Population is edited by Parker Marden, International Population Program at Cornell, and contains evaluations of textbooks and other teaching materials, ideas, and suggestions for presenting various aspects of the systematic study of population to undergraduate students.

The newsletter is supported under a grant from the Population Council. It is being produced and distributed by the Foreign Area Materials Center, a joint undertaking of NCAIS and the Center for International Programs and Comparative Studies of the New York State Education Department. Support from the Population Council makes possible the distribution of Teaching Notes About Population for the first year without charge to interested faculty members and others concerned with undergraduate study of population.

Correspondence regarding editorial matters should go to Parker Marden, Department of Sociology, Lawrence University, Appleton, Wisconsin 54911 and concerning circulation matters to Edith Ehrman, Manager, Foreign Area Materials Center, 60 East 42nd Street, New York, New York 10017.

BOOKS

LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

LINGUISTICS

AYROSA, PLINIO. Estudos Tupinológicos. São Paulo, 1967. Instituto de Estudos Brasileiros, Universidade de São Paulo. Preface by Carlos Drummond. Bibliography. A condensed study of the Tupi dialects and the influence of Portuguese on them. Pp. 109. Paperback.

LITERATURE

- BORGES, JORGE LUIS. A Universal History of Infamy. New York, 1972. E. P. Dutton & Co., Inc. Biographical notes. Translated by Norman Thomas di Giovanni. Includes Borges' first short story, "Streetcorner Man," and a collection of short parables. Pp. 14. $6.95.
- GARCIA MARQUES, GABRIEL. La increíble y triste historia de la Cándida Eréndira y de su abuela desalmada. Buenos Aires, 1972. Editorial Sudamericana. A collection of seven works characterized by a style that approaches a medium between children's tales and the recognized form of short story. Pp. 163. Paperback.
- HAYS, H. R., (editor and translator). Selected Poems of Jorge Carrera Andrade. Albany, 1972. State University of New York Press. Introduction. A bilingual edition of the Ecuadorean poet's work. Pp. 259. $7.50.
- HÉRNANDEZ, JOSE. The Gaucho Martín Fierro. New York, 1967. State University of New York Press. English translation by C. E. Ward. Illustrations by Antonio Berni. Annotations. Bibliography. Introduction by Carlos Alberto Astiz. The epic Argentine poem, including "Martín Fierro" and "The Return of Martín Fierro." Pp. 507. $10.00.
- LISPECTOR, CLARICE. Family Ties. Austin, 1973. The University of Texas Press. Translated with an introduction by Giovanni Pontiero. A collection of the author's most important contributions to Brazilian fiction. Pp. 156. $5.75.
- LYNCH, MARTA. El Cruce del Río. Buenos Aires, 1972. Editorial Sudamericana. A novel. Pp. 313. Paperback.
- MIRET, PEDRO F. Esta Noche . . . Vienen Rojos y Azules. Buenos Aires, 1972. Editorial Sudamericana. Colección El Espejo. Introduction by Luis Buñel. A novel. Pp. 206. Paperback.
- MUJICA LAINEZ, MANUEL. Cecil. Buenos Aires, 1972. Editorial Sudamericana. A tale of a writer in Córdoba, Cecil is described by the author as "autobiografía novelesca." Pp. 212. Paperback.
- ROMERO, JOSE RUBEN. La vida inútil de Pito Pérez. Englewood Cliffs, 1972. Prentice-Hall, Inc. Edited by William O. Cord. Introduction by Leonardo C. de Morelos. Footnotes on vocabulary, history, and culture. Questions at end of each chapter. Themes for composition. A complete, unabridged version of the Mexican novel to be used in the classroom. Pp. 218. Cloth $6.95. Paperback $3.95.

Latin American Research Review

SARDUY, SEVERO. Cobra. Buenos Aires, 1972. Editorial Sudamericana. Colección El Espejo. The novel intermingles two tales in its narrative to contrast the West with the Orient. Pp. 263. Paperback.

TREVISAN, DALTON. The Vampire of Curitiba and Other Stories. New York, 1972. Alfred A. Knopf. Translated from the Portuguese with an introduction by Gregory Rabassa. A collection of the best stories by the contemporary Brazilian writer, Dalton Trevisan. Pp. 268. $7.95.

LITERARY HISTORY AND CRITICISM

ARDAO, ARTURO. Rodó: Su Americanismo. Montevideo, 1970. Biblioteca de Marcha. Colección los Nuestros/ 6. Investigates Rodó's total commitment to Americanism in literature, customs, and politics. Pp. 253. Paperback. $460 (pesos).

CORREA, MARÍA ANGÉLICA. Genio y figura de Ernesto Sábato. Buenos Aires, 1971. Editorial Universitaria de Buenos Aires. Photographs. A lengthy and careful account of the author's life, his work, and views. Pp. 263. Paperback.

CHAVES, FLAVIO LOOREIRO, et al. Aspectos do Modernismo Brasileiro. Porto Alegre, 1970. Edições Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul. Foreword. Bibliography. A collection of six articles that analyze Brazilian modernism of the last 100 years in music, literature, and linguistics. Pp. 219. Paperback.

GUIBERT, RITA. Seven Voices. New York, 1973. Alfred A. Knopf, Inc. Introduction by Emir Rodriguez Monegal. Photographs. Seven of Latin America's great writers speak about their lives and reveal their attitudes on literature, great events, and trends. These include: Pablo Neruda, Jorge Luis Borges, Miguel Angel Asturias, Octavio Paz, Julio Cortázar, Gabriel García Márquez, and Guillermo Cabrera Infante. Pp. 436. $10.00.

JOHNSON, JR., ERNEST A. Juan A. Pérez Bonalde, Documentos 1846-1870. Mérida, 1971. Universidad de los Andes. Introduction by Pedro Grases. Bibliography. A study of the first 24 years of Perez Bonalde's life—his development as a youth and the refinement of his literary skills. Pp. 315. Paperback.

PINTO, ROLANDO MOREL. Experiência e Ficção de Oliveira Paiva. São Paulo, 1967. Instituto de Estudos Brasileiros, Universidade de São Paulo. Preface. Introduction. Footnotes. Bibliography. A study of the life and work of the Brazilian writer, Oliveira Paiva. Pp. 189. Paperback.

THEATER

RIPOLL, CARLOS and ANDRÉS VALDESPINO. Teatro Hispanoamericano. Antología Crítica. I Epoca Colonial. New York, 1972. Anaya-Book Company, Inc. Introduction. General bibliography. A representative collection of plays from the XVI, XVII and XVIII centuries, with a general biography of each author and bibliography for further study. Pp. 484.

NATURAL AND APPLIED SCIENCES

AGRICULTURE

BARRACLOUGH, SOLON and JUAN CARLOS COLLARTE (compilers). El hombre y la tierra en América Latina. Santiago de Chile, 1972. Editorial Universitaria. Preface. Introduction. Maps. Tables. Statistical appendix. The CIDA (Comité Interamericano de Desarrollo Agrícola) reports on land holdings and agrarian reform in Argentina, Brasil, Colombia, Chile, Ecuador, Guatemala and Peru. Pp. 489. Paperback.

FIENUP, DARRELL F., RUSSELL H. BRANNON, and FRANK A. FENDER. El desarrollo agropecuario argentino y sus perspectivas. Instituto Torcuato Di Tella. Foreword by Lowel S. Hardin. Prologue by Walter F. Kugler. Tables. Preface. Charts. Maps. Examines the problems of the Argentine agricultural system, and provides alternatives and perspectives which may be put to use to improve its condition. Pp. 446. Paperback.

GOMEZ R., CARMEN. Materiales para el estudio de la cuestión agraria en Venezuela (1829-1860). Caracas, 1971. Universidad Central de Venezuela, Consejo de Desarrollo Científico y Humanístico. Volume 1. Editorial notice. Introduction. Tables. Index. A compilation of land transfer and acquisition data gathered from documents in the Hemeroteca de la Biblioteca Nacional and the following archives: General de la Nación and Congreso Nacional y Registro Principal. Pp. 677. Paperback.

PATRICK, GEORGE F. Desenvolvimento Agrícola do Nordeste. Rio de Janeiro, 1972. Instituto de Planejamento Econômico e Social and Instituto de Pesquisas. Introduction. Tables. Bibliography. Argues that the agricultural growth in the Northeast can be more aptly described as an increase in the deployment of arable land than a development of methods. Pp. 319. Paperback.

REVEL-MOUROZ, JEAN. Mexique. Aménagement et colonisation du tropique humide. Paris, 1972. Institut des Hautes Etudes de l'Amérique Latine. Travaux et Mémoires de l'Institut, No. 27. Foreword. Introduction. Maps. Notes. Tables. Figures. A study of issues and problems of colonization of agricultural land in modern Mexico. Pp. 269. Paperback.

BOTANY

CLARK, PHIL. A Flower Lover's Guide to Mexico. Mexico, D.F., 1972. Minutiae Mexicana, S.A. Foreword. Photos. Drawings. Glossary and index. Map. Bibliography. An expanded, revised edition of A Guide to Mexican Flora. Pp. 128. Paperback. $2.40.

SOCIAL SCIENCES

ANTHROPOLOGY

- ARVELO-JIMENEZ, NELLY. Political Relations in a Tribal Society: A Study of the Ye'cuana Indians of Venezuela. Ithaca, 1971. Latin American Studies Program, Cornell University. Dissertation Series No. 31. Introduction. Tables. Geneological charts. Bibliography. A study of the social system of the Ye'cuana tribe of Venezuela with the major focus on politics. Pp. 383. Paperback.
- BENSON, ELIZABETH P. (editor). The Cult of the Feline. Washington, D.C., 1972. Dumbarton Oaks Research Library and Collections. Trustees for Harvard University. Preface. Bibliographies. Illustrations. Photographs. Papers collected at the Conference in Pre-Colombian Iconography, 1970: cross-cultural and cross-disciplinary studies on the impact that large cats had on the artists and religious thinkers of the early civilizations of Latin America. Pp. 166.
- BONILLA, VICTOR D. Servants of God or Masters of Men? Baltimore, 1972. Penguin Books Inc. Pelican Latin American Library. Translated from the French by Rosemary Sheed. Prefatory note. Tables. Bibliography. Notes. An account of a Colombian tribe facing a Catholic missionary community. The author maintains that, in a broader sense, this is the story of the exploitive West against the Indian, destroying in the name of progress, of democracy, and of God. Pp. 304. Paperback. $2.65.
- CASTANEDA, CARLOS. The Teachings of Don Juan: A Yaqui Way of Knowledge. Berkeley, 1972. University of California Press. Foreword by Walter Goldschmidt. Introduction. Appendices. The author guides the reader into an anthropologist's field notes and structural analysis of the system of logic and beliefs of Don Juan, a Yaqui sorcerer. Pp. 207. Paperback. $2.45.
- JOEL, MIRIAM. African Traditions in Latin America. Cuernavaca, 1972. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. CIDOC Cuaderno, No. 73. Introduction. Glossary. Bibliography. A study of African traditions and customs in a New World setting. Pp. 184. Paperback.
- LAFAYE, JACQUES. Quetzalcoatl et Guadalupe. Eschatologie et Histoire au Mexique (1521-1821). Lille, France, 1972. Service de Reproduction des Theses, Université de Lille III. Illustrations. Maps. Index. A two volume study of the encounter of Spanish Catholicism with Mexican polytheism and the process of assimilation. Pp. 1050. Paperback.
- MACNEISH, RICHARD S. Chronology and Irrigation. Austin, 1972. University of Texas Press. Series: The Prehistory of the Tehuacan Valley, Vol. 4. Edited by Frederick Johnson. Preface. Tables. Maps. Photos. Illustrations. Bibliography. Covers two specialized aspects of the Tehuacan Archaeological-Botanical Project: A study of the radiocarbon project covers the time from the Ajuerado Phase (8,000 to 10,000 years ago) to the 16th Century. The second part outlines the history of the theory of hydraulic society and its role in the development of high civilizations. Pp. 290. $15.00.

POLLACK-ELTZ, ANGELINA. Vestigios Africanos en la Cultura del Pueblo Venezolano. Caracas, 1972. Universidad Católica "Andrés Bello." Instituto de Investigaciones Históricas. Introduction. Bibliography. Index. The results of a ten-year study of African folklore in the region of Barlovento, Venezuela. Pp. 171. Paperback.

ROBERT, PAUL. Catholicisme et Vaudou. Cuernavaca, Mexico, 1971. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. Sondeos No. 82. Preface. A study of Catholicism's relations with Haitain voodoo as seen by a French bishop. Pp. 516. Paperback.

ECONOMICS

ACEDO MENDOZA, CARLOS. Venezuela: Ruta y Destino. Caracas, 1971. Fondo Editorial Común. Tables. Map. Bibliography. Index. Prologue by Rafael Caldera. An examination of Venezuela's major national problems within the larger context of development in Latin America. Pp. 496.

ARRAES, MIGUEL. Brazil: The People and the Power. Baltimore, 1972. Penguin Books Inc. Pelican Latin American Library. Translated by Lancelot Sheppard. Introduction by Yves Goussault. Foreword. Index. Tables. An analysis of the economic and political history of Brazil and the working of the present regime. Pp. 232. Paperback. $2.45.

BURNELL, ELAINE H. (editor). One Spark from Holocaust: The Crisis in Latin America. New York, 1972. The Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions. Preface. Introduction by Raul Prebisch. Prologue by Juan Sanchez Navarro. Tables. Index. This collection of essays describes the development problems in Latin America and presents possible courses of action for the seventies. Pp. 234. $8.75.

DAVIS, STANLEY M. and LOUIS WOLF GOODMAN. Workers and Managers in Latin America. Lexington, Mass., 1972. D. C. Heath and Company. Introduction. Tables. A collection of essays which consider the impact of modernization, characterized by the constant reorganization of work roles, on Latin American society, the economic organization of firms, and the political arena. Pp. 300. Paperback. $3.95.

DELL, SIDNEY. The Inter-American Development Bank: A Study in Development Financing. New York, 1972. Praeger Publishers. Praeger Special Studies in International Economics and Development. Tables. Bibliography. A study of the Bank as a specific institution and as a case study in development financing. Pp. 226. $15.00.

ECIEL. Industrialization in a Latin American Common Market. Washington, D.C., 1972. The Brookings Institution. Study of the Estudios Conjuntos sobre Integración Económica Latinoamericana. Prepared by Martin Carnoy. Foreword by Kermit Gordon.

Latin American Research Review

- Preface. Tables. Footnotes. Appendices. Index. Presents a methodology for determining the minimum cost location of production for various industries in the Latin countries and for measuring the gains and losses of regional production compared with producing nationally or importing from the United States. Pp. 267. $8.95.
- FUNDAÇÃO IBGE. Anuario Estatístico do Brasil. Rio de Janeiro, 1971. Ministério do Planejamento e Coordenação Geral, Fundação IBGE, Instituto Brasileiro de Estatística. Foreword. Index. Sources. A very comprehensive volume which contains demographic, financial, economic, social, and political statistics. Pp. 831. Paperback.
- ISAL. América Latina: movilización popular y fe cristiana. Montevideo, 1971. Iglesia y Sociedad en América Latina. Introduction. Bibliography. A collective study of the tendencies of the popular movements and the state of economic conditions in Latin America since the III Asamblea Continental de ISAL, 1967. Pp. 172. Paperback.
- GITTINGER, J. PRICE. Economic Analysis of Agricultural Projects. Baltimore, 1972. The Johns Hopkins University Press. Economic Development Institute and International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. Foreword by Andrew M. Karmarck. Tables. Charts. Bibliography. The book is intended as a tool for sharpening the decision analysis methods of those people in developing countries who must utilize scarce resources on agricultural development. Pp. 221. Paperback. $3.00.
- GRIFFITHS, B. Mexican Monetary Policy and Economic Development. New York, 1972. Praeger Publishers. Praeger Special Studies in International Economics and Development. Introduction. Tables. Charts. Appendix. Bibliography. Backed by official publications and private research, the author argues that Mexico, with a conservative monetary policy, has, since 1940, witnessed growth without marked inflation. Pp. 161. $15.00.
- GRUNWALD, JOSEPH, MIGUEL S. WIONCZEK, and MARTIN CARNOY. Latin American Economic Integration and U.S. Policy. Washington, D.C., 1972. The Brookings Institution. Foreword by Kermit Gordon. Tables. Footnotes. Appendices. Bibliography. Index. The authors trace the history of integration efforts and the positions of both the U.S. and the Latin American countries and examine the implications of the existing aid program in Latin America and the issues surrounding U.S. trade and private investment in the area. Pp. 216. $6.95.
- LAU, STEPHEN F. The Chilean Response to Foreign Investment. New York, 1972. Praeger Publishers. Praeger Special Studies in International Economics and Development. Introduction. Tables. Charts. Appendix. Bibliography. An analysis of the current status and implications of Chilean policy and attitudes toward foreign investments. Pp. 118. $15.00.
- MATUS ROMO, CARLOS. Estrategia y plan. Santiago, 1972. Editorial Universitaria, S.A. Instituto Latinoamericano de Planificación Económica y So- cial. Prologue by Raúl Prebisch. Introduction. Tables. Charts. A general and theoretical analysis of the problems of planning and development in Latin America. Pp. 192. Paperback.

- PAZOS, FELIPE. Chronic Inflation in Latin America. New York, 1972. Praeger Publishers. Praeger Special Studies in International Economics and Development. Tables. Charts. An updated translation, with new material added, of the study written for the Alliance for Progress Inter-American Committee. Pp. 204. $15.00.
- POATS, RUTHERFORD M. Technology for Developing Nations. Washington, D.C., 1972. The Brookings Institution. Foreword by Kermit Gordon. Tables. Index. The author assesses the opportunities and impact of technological attacks on key problems—agriculture, industry, health, nutrition, population and education with suggestions for research priorities and methods. Pp. 255. $7.50.
- SMITH, T. LYNN. Brazil: People and Institutions. New Orleans, 1972. Louisiana State University Press. Fourth edition. Preface. Introductions. Tables. Photographs. Maps. Bibliography. Index. Examines the standards of living, presents a study of Brazil's basic institutions, and discusses the population problems in light of information from the recent census. Pp. 778. $15.00.
- TRAVIESO, FERNANDO. Ciudad, región y subdesarrollo. Caracas, 1972. Fondo Editorial Común. Foreword by Carlos Acedo Mendoza. Tables. Maps. Illustrations. Appendix. Bibliography. A study of the underdeveloped state of the cities and regions of Venezuela prepared as a textbook for use at CENDES. Pp. 185. Paperback.
- UTRIA, RUBEN D. El problema de la vivienda y el desarrollo de América Latina. Caracas, 1969. Fondo Editorial Común. Tables. Preface. Footnotes. The author probes the problem of poor living conditions in Latin America and suggests a national strategy for tackling economic and social development. Pp. 151. Paperback.
- WYNIA, GARY W. Politics and Planners: Economic Development in Central America. Madison, 1972. The University of Wisconsin Press. Introduction. Maps. Tables. Note on sources. The author examines the failures of the new generation of economic planners in five Central American countries. Pp. 227. $15.00.

EDUCATION

- CIDE. La educación particular en Chile. Antecedentes y Dilemas. Santiago, 1971. Centro de Investigación y Desarrollo de la Educación. Directed and co-ordinated by Luis A. Brahm M., Patricio Cariola, and Juan José Silva U. Introduction. Tables. Charts. Provides data on the history, characteristics, activities, and future of private education in Chile. Pp. 391.
- CIDOC. CIDOC Documenta: Alternatives in Education. Cuernavaca, 1972. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. CIDOC Cuaderno, No. 75–78. These four issues (volume VI, 1970–1971) contain articles, papers, and reports which treat various problems of the educational system and present new alternatives. Pp. 292, 256, 190, 208. Paperback.

HISTORY

BIZARRO, SALVATORE. Historical Dictionary of Chile. Metuchen, 1972. The Scarecrow Press, Inc. Latin American Historical Dictionaries, No. 7. Editor's foreword. Introduction. Maps. Bibliography. A careful analysis of Chile's geography, economic history, major and minor political parties, its relations in the inter-American system, and the customs and linguistic peculiarities of the people. Pp. 309. $7.50.

CHANDLER, BILLY JAYNES. The Feitosas and the Sertão dos Inhamuns: The History of a Family and a Community in Northeast Brazil, 1700-1930. Gainesville, 1972. University of Florida Press. Introduction. Maps. References. Bibliography. Glossary. The history of a family and a community in Northeast Brazil, 1700-1930. Pp. 178. $7.50.

CLINE, HOWARD F. (volume editor). Guide to Ethnohistorical Sources, (Part One). Austin, 1972. University of Texas Press in cooperation with Middle American Research Institute of Tulane University. Series: Handbook of Middle American Indians. Bibliography. Volume 12 is the first of four volumes dealing with ethnohistorical sources and contains well-documented works by Cline, Peter Gerhard, Donald Robertson, H. R. Harvey, and Robert C. West. Pp. 462. $20.00.

CONRAD, ROBERT. The Destruction of Brazilian Slavery, 1850-1888.

Berkeley, 1972. University of California Press. Preface. Tables. Illustrations. Maps. Figures. Bibliography. An analysis of the economic basis of slavery and the internal trade in slaves in Brazil. Pp. 368. $14.50.

CUMBERLAND, CHARLES C. Mexican Revolution: The Constitutionalist Years. Austin, 1972. The University of Texas Press. Texas Pan American Series. Introduction by David C. Bailey. Photos. Map. Bibliography. Index. A study of the years 1913-1920 which traces Mexico's course through the civil war, the codification of the Constitution, and the emergence of an activist leadership. A sequel to Cumberland's Mexican Revolution: Genesis Under Madero. Pp. 449. $10.00.

DAVID, HAROLD EUGENE. Latin American Thought: A Historical Introduction. Baton Rouge, 1972. Louisiana State University Press. Foreword. Bibliography. Index. A survey of Latin thought, with an emphasis on the revolutionary character of Latin American thinking and upon the quest for national identity. Pp. 269. $10.00.

DUNCAN, T. BENTLEY. Atlantic Islands: Madeira, the Azores, and the Cape Verdes in Seventeenth-Century Commerce and Navigation. Chicago, 1972. The University of Chicago Press. The Monograph Series of the Society for the History of Discoveries. Preface. Tables. Appendix. Bibliography. Index. Maps. A narrative of the history and early importance of the tiny islands. Pp. 291. $15.00.

ELLSWORTH, LUCIUS F. (editor). The Americanization of the Gulf

- Coast, 1803–1850*. Pensacola, 1972. Historic Pensacola Preservation Board. Introduction. Bibliography. A collection of essays from the Gulf Coast History and Humanities Conference of 1971. Book deals with the varying rate of Americanization and activities of various groups of residents which occurred along the Gulf Coast during the designated period. Pp. 155. Paperback. Available from: Gulf Coast History and Humanities Conference, c/o John C. Pace Library, University of West Florida, Pensacola, Florida 32504.
- FLEMION, PHILIP F. Historical Dictionary of El Salvador. Metuchen, 1972. The Scarecrow Press, Inc. Latin American Historical Dictionaries Series, No. 5. Foreword by A. Curtis Wilgus. Preface. Bibliography. Provides brief, factual identification of prominent persons and historical events of El Salvador and information on political subdivisions and geographical features of the country. Pp. 157. $5.00.
- HALL, DOUGLAS. Five of the Leewards, 1834–1870. St. Laurence, Barbados, 1971. Caribbean Universities Press. Preface. Tables. Appendices. Index. Bibliography. The problems, which resulted from the emancipation of the slaves in the West Indies, are compared in five of the Leeward Islands: Antigua, Barbuda, Montserrat, Nevis and St. Kitts. Pp. 211. £ 1.86.
- JARO, ALVARO. Guerra y sociedad en Chile. Santiago, 1971. Editorial Universitaria. Prologue. Introduction. Illustrations. Bibliography. Footnotes. Translated from the French. The author examines the idea, reality, and the nature of war in Chile in the 16th and 17th century, and points out the interrelationships of the social forms and the nature of bellicose policy. Pp. 255. Paperback.
- MEYER, HARVEY K. Historical Dictionary of Nicaragua. Metuchen, 1972. The Scarecrow Press, Inc. Series: Latin American Historical Dictionaries, No. 6. Editor's foreword. Introduction. Bibliography. Maps. Illustrations. A presentation of the geographical, historical, and cultural entities of Nicaragua. Pp. 516. $12.50.
- PESCATELLO, ANN (editor). Female and Male in Latin America. Pittsburgh, 1972. University of Pittsburgh Press. Foreword. Introduction. Tables. Bibliography. Essays on the images, roles, and relationships of female and male in Latin America in literary, historical and social science contexts. Pp. 334.
- PLA, ALBERTO J. Ideología y método en la historiografía argentina. Buenos Aires, 1972. Ediciones Neuva Visión. Introduction. Bibliography. Index. An analysis of the principal contemporary Argentine historiographical trends. Pp. 179. Paperback.
- RIVIERA-PIZARRO, JORGE. Domination y catequesis en América Latina, Siglos XVI y XVII. Cuernavaca, 1971. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. SONDEOS, No. 81. Introduction. Bibliography. Index. A look at the Roman Catholic Church within the structure of domination created by neocolonialism. Pp. 204. Paperback.

Latin American Research Review

ROSS, STANLEY R. (editor). ¿Ha Muerto la Revolución Mexicana? Mexico, D.F., 1972. Secretaría de Educación Pública. Translated by Hector David Torres. Prologue by W. P. Glade. Introduction. Reference. A two-volume work on the Mexican Revolution and its repercussions on present-day Mexico. Volume I carries the subtitle Causas, desarrollo y crisis; Volume II provides Balance y epílogo. Pp. 203/191. Paperback.

POLITICAL SCIENCE

- BAGU, SERGIO. Mariano Moreno. Montevideo, 1971. Biblioteca de Marcha. Colección los Nuestros/ 8. A look into Moreno's work, ideas, personality, and the influence which he had on the politics of his time. Pp. 117. Paperback. $280 (pesos).
- BRUSCHERA, OSCAR H. Artigas. Montevideo, 1971. Biblioteca de Marcha. Colección los Nuestros/ 1. Bibliography. A study of Artiga's life and his influence on the Ibero-American revolutionary spirit. Pp. 197. Paperback. $480 (pesos).
- BULNES, FRANCISCO. The Whole Truth about Mexico: The Mexican Revolution and President Wilson's Part Therein, As Seen by a Científico. Detroit, 1972. Blaine Ethridge reprint of: New York, M. Bulnes Book Company. Translated by Dora Scott from La verdad completa sobre México. Preface. A critical analysis of the Revolution with a probe less into the U.S. response to the incidents at Vera Cruz and Tampico than into Mexican politics and society during Díaz's regime and the early days of the Revolution. Pp. 395. $22.50.
- FERNÁNDEZ-RETAMAR, ROBERTO. Martí. Montevideo, 1970. Biblioteca de Marcha. Colección los Nuestros/ 3. Bibliography. The political writings of Martí with a discussion of his place in the Third World. Pp. 142. Paperback.
- HALPERIN, MAURICE. The Rise and Decline of Fidel Castro. Berkeley, 1973. University of California Press. Preface. Map. Photographs. Index. A narrative of the first five years (1959–1964) of Castro's regime with emphasis on Castro's foreign policy and placing it in the context of domestic policy and conditions. The author spent six years (1962–1968) on the faculty of the University of Havana. A second volume, carrying the story to the present, is in preparation. Pp. 380. $12.95.
- KANE, WILLIAM EVERETT. Civil Strife in Latin America: A Legal History of U.S. Involvement. Baltimore, 1972. The Johns Hopkins University Press. Foreword by William D. Rogers. Footnotes. Index. This analysis of the relationship and the conflicts between a nation's legal obligations and the politically motivated actions that arise in a nation-state system focuses on the history of U.S. intervention in Latin America. Pp. 240. $10.00.
- MACHALE, TOMAS P. (editor). Chile: A Critical Survey. Santiago de Chile, 1972. Institute of General Studies. Preface. Footnotes. Sixteen essays provide an exhaustive analysis of the conflicting situation of Chile

- with its Marxist government facing strong and growing opposition. Pp. 324. Paperback.
- PERUSSE, ROLAND I. (editor). Contemporary Issues in Inter-American Relations. San Juan, Puerto Rico, 1972. North-South Press. Foreword. A collection of speeches, most of which were delivered as part of the panel on Inter-American Understanding of the 63rd U.S. National Governor's Conference, 1971. Pp. 60. Paperback.
- SELSE, GREGORIO. Sandino. Montevideo, 1970. Biblioteca de Marcha. Colección los Nuestros/ 4. Bibliography. The life, writings, and deeds of Augusto C. Sandino. Pp. 123. Paperback.
- SOCIOLOGY
- CARDONA GUTIERREZ, RAMIRO. Las migraciones internas. Bogotá, 1972. Asociación Colombiana de Facultades de Medicina, División de Estudios de Población. Introduction. Tables. Charts. The first part of this work presents an overview of migratory trends, urbanization, and regional distribution of the populace in Latin America. The second part concentrates on migration within Colombia. Pp. 385. Paperback. $4.50 US.
- CIDOC. CIDOC Documenta: Ideologías/Iglesias. Cuernavaca, 1971. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. CIDOC Cuaderno, No. 66. Bibliographies. Articles in Spanish, French, and English deal with various ideologies, their implications, and relationships to religious beliefs. Pp. 252. Paperback.
- COCKCROFT, JAMES D., ANDRÉ GUNDER FRANK, and DALE L. JOHNSON. Dependence and Underdevelopment: Latin America's Political Economy. Garden City, New York, 1972. Doubleday & Company, Inc. Anchor Books. Introduction. Index. A theory of development as a political as well as economic process supported by case studies of Latin American nations. Pp. 448. Paperback. $2.50.
- DEHAINAUT, RAYMOND K. Faith and Ideology in Latin American Perspective. Cuernavaca, 1972. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. SONDEOS, No. 85. Foreword. Introduction. Biography. An investigation dealing with the relation between religious perspectives and ideologies in Latin America. Pp. 332. Paperback.
- GODOY URZUA, HERNAN (editor). Estructura social de Chile. Santiago, 1971. Editorial Universitaria, S.A. Preface. Introduction. Tables. Bibliography. A collection of articles which analyze the institutions and social structure of Chile on the basis of contemporary research and historical background. Pp. 632. Paperback.
- NOVINSKY, ANITA. Cristãos novos no Bahia. São Paulo, 1972. Editora da Universidade de São Paulo. Introduction. Bibliography. Index. Probes the social and religious tensions which were subtly manifest in the Bahia region in the 17th century. Pp. 238. Paperback.
- PARRILLA-BONILLA, ANTULIO. Puerto Rico: Iglesia y Sociedad, 1969-1971. Cuernavaca, 1972. Centro Intercultural de Documentación.

Latin American Research Review

- SONDEOS, No. 84. Foreword. Prologue. Bibliography. A presentation of ideas gathered from interviews, conferences, and discussions that dealt with Church and State in Puerto Rico. Pp. 550. Paperback.
- POZAS, RICARDO and ISABEL H. DE POZAS. Los indios en las clases sociales de México. Mexico, D.F., 1972. Siglo XXI Editores S.A. Introduction. Tables. Bibliography. The first of two books which study the economic and socio-cultural environment of the contemporary Mexican Indians with emphasis on the economic exploitation. Pp. 181. Paperback.
- SARIOLA, SAKARI. Power and Resistance: The Colonial Heritage in Latin America. Ithaca, 1972. Cornell University Press. Introduction. Figures. Table. Notes. An empirical socio-history of power and change in Latin America from the Conquest to independence. Pp. 316. $9.50.
- STEGER, HANNIS-ALBERT. El transfondo revolucionario del sincretismo criollo. Cuernavaca, 1972. Centro Intercultural de Documentación. SONDEOS, No. 86. Bibliography. Social aspects of the transformation of religion in colonial and post-colonial Afro-America. Pp. 93. Paperback.
- TORRES GOITIA, HUGO. Consideraciones en torno a la programación del desarrollo de la comunidad. Caracas, 1971. Fondo Editorial Común. Series of the Departamento de Asuntos Sociales de la Organización de los Estados Americanos. Introduction. Tables. An economist's analysis of the methods and requirements of community development, and the relationship between national and community development. Pp. 108. Paperback.
- GEISSE, GUILLERMO and JORGE E. HARDOY (volume editors). Regional and Urban Development Policies: A Latin American Perspective. (Volume 2). Beverly Hills, 1972. Sage Publications. Series editors for Latin American Urban Research: Francine F. Rabinovitz and Felicity M. Trueblood. Preface. Introduction. Notes. Bibliography. Appendix. Biographical sketches of authors and editors. A collection of articles that deal with the theoretical bases for and operating experiences with regional and urban development efforts to date in Latin America, with emphasis on regional policy and focusing exclusively on policy concerns rather than on the formulation and testing of hypothesis with empirical data. Pp. 298. $15.00.

COLLECTIONS AND INTERDISCIPLINARY

- CUNILL, PEDRO. Visión de Chile. Santiago, 1972. Editorial Universitaria, S.A. Prologue by Felipe Herrera. Preamble by Olga Poblete de Espinosa. Photos. Bibliography. Intended to familiarize the reader with Chile's history, its people, economy, natural resources, and other national characteristics. Pp. 238. Paperback.

GALDAMES G., JUAN, and JAIME AUDA J. Chile: Un país andino del Pacífico Sur. Santiago de Chile, 1972. Editorial Universitaria, S.A. Prologue by Gonzalo Martner. Maps. Tables. A critical analysis of Chile's geographical characteristics, its natural, human, and economic resources, and the perspectives of development which the various regions of the country offer. Pp. 176. Paperback.

REFERENCE

BRAVO, ENRIQUE R. An Annotated Selected Puerto Rican Bibliography. New York, 1972. Urban Center of Columbia University. Translated by Marcial Cuevas. Preface by Lloyd A. Johnson. Introduction by Felix Cosme. The bilingual bibliography is intended to assist and stimulate the student in the search for ethnic data. Pp. 114. Paperback. $5.00.