CASES AND MATERIALS ON THE LAW OF THE SEA

By Louis B. Sohn and John E. Noyes

Cases and Materials on the Law of the Sea is a valuable introduction to a wide range of perspectives on issues of oceans law and policy. This thoroughly up-to-date text serves both as a classroom course book and a treatise and reference guide.

2004. 1000 pages. ISBN 1-57105-317-4. $145.00/hardcover. $95.00/student edition.

THE ICC AS A NEW INSTRUMENT FOR REPRESSING TERRORISM

By Roberta Arnold

This insightful work analyzes the deficiencies of the existing counter-terrorism network and assesses whether acts commonly referred to as "terrorism" are actually war crimes, crimes against humanity, genocide, and aggression, thereby falling within the jurisdiction of the International Criminal Court.

2004. 492 pages. ISBN 1-57105-328-X. $125.00/hardcover.

FORUM NON CONVENIENS IN THE MODERN AGE: A Comparative and Methodological Analysis of Anglo-American Law

By Michael M. Karayanni

This compelling thesis asserts that the role of forum non conveniens should be strengthened and even enhanced in light of such technological advances as the internet, jet travel and telecommunications that facilitate transfer of documents and testimony.

2004. 280 pages. ISBN 1-57105-329-8. $115.00/hardcover.

THE DIMENSIONS OF REGIONAL TRADE INTEGRATION IN SOUTH-EAST ASIA

By Zakir Hafez

This is the first comprehensive work on the free trade area of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) Free Trade Area (AFTA).

2004. 300 pages. ISBN 1-57105-184-8. $125.00/hardcover.

ECOVIOLENCE AND THE LAW: Supranational Normative Foundations of Ecocrime

By Laura Westra

Dr. Westra proposes that the multiple environmental crises threatening the global community are, in fact, actual crimes. This forward-thinking work provides careful analysis with imaginative solutions.

2004. 480 pages. ISBN 1-57105-316-6. $125.00/hardcover.

INTERNATIONAL SPORTS LAW, 2d ed.

By James A. Nafziger

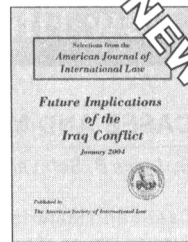

This timely second edition introduces critical new topics, such as the human rights of athletes, instant replay technology, corruption, the emerging lex sportiva from arbitral awards, ambush marketing, etc.

SELECTIONS FROM THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW:

FUTURE IMPLICATIONS OF THE IRAQ CONFLICT

Will military action in Iraq in spring 2003 lead to fundamental transformation or possible destruction of the UN Charter system of law on the use of force? This inaugural Selections contains more than a dozen essays on the Iraq conflict—all with an eye to the future—written by a distinguished group of scholars and attorneys, including Eyal Benvenisti, Todd F. Buchwald, Richard A. Falk, Tom J. Farer, Thomas M. Franck, Richard N. Gardner, Thomas D. Grant, Miriam Sapiro, David J. Scheffer, Carsten Stahn, Jane E. Stromseth, Ruth Wedgwood, John Yoo, and the Legal Adviser of the U.S. Department of State, William H. Taft IV. Originally appearing in an Agora in the July and October 2003 issues of the American Journal of International Law, these contributions are supplemented by the six relevant UN resolutions and other materials, making Selections an excellent classroom tool.

The Laws of Armed Conflicts

A Collection of Conventions, Resolutions and Other Documents; Fourth Revised and Completed Edition

EDITED BY DIETRICH SCHINDLER AND JIRI TOMAN

The long-awaited fourth edition of this classic collection reproduces the texts of conventions, draft conventions, and resolutions on the law of armed conflicts which have been adopted since the codification movement started in the nineteenth century. All texts are introduced by a short explanatory note. A list of signatures, ratifications and accessions, as well as the texts of reservations of individual states, are attached to each convention. The book is fully indexed.

Introduction to the International Human Rights Regime

MANFRED NOWAK

The present textbook attempts to provide a first, and at the same time, comprehensive introduction into the idea and significance of human rights, its philosophical and theoretical foundations, historical development, the main structures, and procedures of international human rights protection by the United Nations and regional organizations (Council of Europe, Organization of American States, African Union, OSCE and others), and modern trends, such as preventive mechanisms, international criminal law, human rights as essential elements of peace-keeping and peace-building operations, humanitarian intervention or the relationship between human rights and terrorism. Now available in paperback.

Universalising International Law

C.G. WEERAMANTRY

This volume looks initially at some general aspects of universalisation. It thereafter adopts a universalist approach to some of the sources of international law and it deals with peace, the bedrock of international law, which likewise requires a universalist approach. It is hoped that these studies will highlight the imperative need that now exists for extending the conceptual framework of international law, thereby buttressing its moral authority and widening its appeal at a time when universal acceptance of international law is one of the most pressing demands of the international system.

Studies in International Law and History

An Asian Perspective

R.P. ANAND

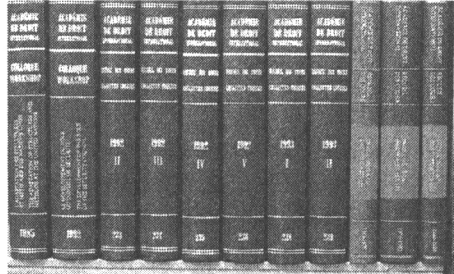

Although modern international law is now recognized as universally applicable to all the states as soon as they emerge as independent entities, this is only a recent phenomenon not older than the United Nations itself. When did European international law become universally binding? Can states, which did not, and could not, participate in its origin and development question some of its rules, which are inimical to their interests? How can and does this law change, or be modified, in the absence of any supra-national legislature or other authority? What has been the attitude and practice of these newly independent Asian and African states towards international law, which was largely developed by and for the benefit of the rich and industrialized states of Western Europe and the United States, and even more importantly, their role in its development? These and other questions are dealt with in this latest volume by R.P. Anand.
