EDITORIAL POLICY & GUIDELINES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

In the tradition of the HOGENDORPcentre, the European Constitutional Law Review (EuConst) follows the classical approach of constitutionalism, to discuss EU law's developments as well as comparative public law of the member states, political and constitutional theory and history. The journal is a platform for scholarly discussion of European constitutional events and evolution. It is open to contributions in this field from any country in the world and from any discipline. These contributions should satisfy as to substance, apart from the common scholarly criteria, two specific conditions, to a) have a distinctly European relevance and b) include a reference to and discussion of legal aspects involved.

Submission of Material

Authors are requested to send their manuscript to the Editorial Office European Constitutional Law Review, c/o HOGENDORPcentre, P.O. Box 1030; NL – 1000 BA Amsterdam, E-mail: EuConst@uva.nl. All submitted materials should be in English. Detailed instructions and style sheet can be found on <<http://journals.cambridge.org/action/displayJournal?jid=ECL>>. Materials may be submitted at any time of the year and, if accepted for publication, will be published at the earliest available opportunity.

Copyright

Copyright is exclusively vested in EuConst and the author(s) jointly. Acceptance of the Board of Editors' offer to publish implies, however, that authors agree to an embargo on publication elsewhere, either in English or another language, for a period of two years following the date of publication in EuConst. The agreement of the Board of Editors will be necessary before the article can be subsequently published elsewhere.

Revision

Articles accepted will be edited, linguistically and substantively, subject to author's approval.

Books for Review

These should be sent to Dr. Lars Hoffmann, University of Maastricht, International and European Law Department, Bouillonstraat 1-3, 6211 LH Maastricht, The Netherlands. E-mail: lars.hoffmann@maastrichtuniversity.nl.

The G.K. VAN HOGENDORPcentre FOR EUROPEAN CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES, short: HOGENDORPcentre, is a Jean Monnet centre of excellence at the University of Amsterdam. Founded in 1996, it promotes research and course development in the field of European Constitutional Studies, bringing together the disciplines of constitutional (including comparative) law, history, political theory. Gijsbert Karel van Hogendorp, 1762-1834, is the auctor intellectualis of the Dutch Kingdom's first constitution, of 1814.

Apart from editing the European Constitutional Law Review, the HOGENDORPcentre hosts or co-hosts yearly conferences and runs a series of publications, the Hogendorp-papers, published by Europa Law Publishing <http://www.europalawpublishing.com/european_law/erad.htm>.
