

Notes for Contributors

1. Original articles which are concerned with contemporary issues, developments and policymaking may be submitted for consideration for publication in the ELRR, provided they have not been published elsewhere or under consideration for publication elsewhere.
2. ELRR is a refereed journal. Therefore, three copies should be submitted. They should be up to 8,000 words and contain an abstract of less than 150 words describing the major points made in the paper and the main conclusions reached.
3. Copyright of articles published in ELRR is vested in the journal. Permission to reprint should be sought from the Editors. This will be granted in normal circumstances.
4. Manuscripts should be typed double spaced on one side of A4 paper. A separate title sheet should provide the contributors' names, affiliation and postal address. Do not include the contributors' names on first page of the article.
5. If you use acronyms or abbreviations, use the full title the first time, followed by the acronym in brackets.
6. Mathematical notation should be provided in both symbols and words. Articles of a mathematical nature should also contain a clear statement of the arguments in plain English, with substantial amounts of mathematical material placed in an index.
7. Quotations of four lines or more should be indented. Shorter quotes should be included in the body of the text.
8. Endnotes, which should be kept to a minimum, should be numbered serially and included at the end of the article.
9. Tables and Charts or Figures should be numbered consecutively and included at the end of the text in Word or rtf format. Indicate their approximate placement in the text and provide titles and captions (citations) for each.
10. In-text references should include the author's name, year of publication and page: 'Chapman (1983: 230) has argued'. 'Many questioned the equality of working Japanese women (Sano 1983: 420)'. Where an author has more than one publication in the same year, use alphabetical ordering to distinguish: for example, (Dabscheck 1986b: 46).
11. A references list should be included at the end of the text, this should cite all works referred to. The reference list should be arranged in alphabetical order by author.
12. Publication permissions are the responsibility of the author.

For Books:

Hagan, J. (1981) A History of the ACTU, Longman Cheshire, Melbourne.

For Articles within Books:

Deery, S. (1989) 'Unions and Technological Change', in G.W. Woods and D.H. Plowman (eds), Australian Trade Unions: An Industrial Relations Perspective, Macmillan, Melbourne, Second edition, pp. 269-287.

For Articles in Journals:

Whitehead, T. (1987) 'Stocks and flows: current policy issues in Australia', Economics, 22 (2): 10-17.

Citing from Internet Sources

a web page with an author:

- Winston, J. (1999) A look at referencing, [Online], Available: <http://www.aaa.edu.au/aaa.html> [accessed on 20 October 2000].

an unauthored web page: [Online] (1999) Available:

<http://www.aaa.edu.au/index.html> [accessed on 20 October 2000].

