ISSUED QUARTERLY BY THE FACULTY OF DIVINITY IN HARVARD UNIVERSITY

The Harvard Theological Review is partially funded by the foundation established under the will of Mildred Everett, daughter of Charles Carroll Everett, Bussey Professor of Theology in Harvard University, 1869–1900, and Dean of the Faculty of Divinity, 1878–1900. The scope of the Review embraces theology, ethics, the history and philosophy of religion, biblical studies, and rabbinic studies. It seeks to publish compelling original research that contributes to the development of scholarly understanding and interpretation.
