New to Cambridge in 2015

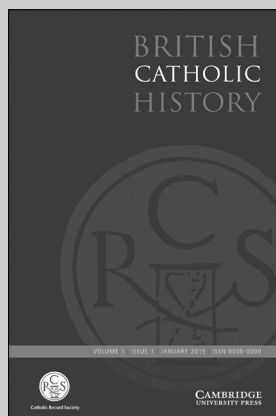

British Catholic History

Published on behalf of the Catholic Record Society

Editor

Anne Dillon, Lucy Cavendish College, Cambridge, UK

British Catholic History (BCH) (formerly titled Recusant History), is committed to serving as a forum for innovative, vibrant, transnational, inter-disciplinary scholarly research on the history of Catholicism in the British Isles. Current and archival content will be available online for the first time from 2015. BCH publishes original research articles, review articles and shorter reviews of works arising from the best research on all aspects of British Catholic history from the 15th Century up to the present day. Given the multi-faceted nature of British Catholic history research, it provides both readers and authors a uniquely interesting lens through which to examine British and Atlantic history.

Journal of Biosocial Science

Editor

C. G. N. Mascie-Taylor, University of Cambridge, UK

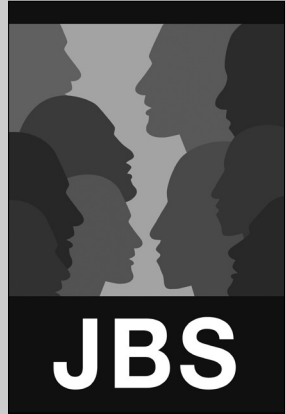

Journal of Biosocial Science is a leading journal in the field of biosocial science, the common ground between biology and sociology. It is an essential reference guide for all biological and social scientists working in such areas as reproduction and its control, gerontology, ecology, genetics, applied psychology, sociology, education, criminology, demography, health and epidemiology. Publishing original research papers, short reports, reviews, lectures and book reviews, the journal also includes a Debate section which encourages comments on specific articles, with subsequent response from the original author.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT

The Journal of Ecclesiastical History

Editors

James Carleton Paget, University of Cambridge, UK
Alec Ryrie, Durham University, UK

The Editors and Editorial Board of The Journal of Ecclesiastical History are delighted to continue to support a major prize in the field of early Christian History.

The Journal is offering an annual prize of £500 for the best essay submitted on a subject connected with any aspect of early Christian history, broadly understood as including the first seven centuries AD/CE. Scholars in any relevant discipline (theology, classics, late antique studies, Middle Eastern Studies etc.), whether established in their field or graduate students, are encouraged to enter the competition. The essays should not exceed 8,000 words, including footnotes, and for 2016 should be submitted by 30th September 2015. A judgement will be made at the end of November of the same year (the editors reserve the right not to award the prize if no essay of significant quality is submitted). The essay of the successful candidate will be published in the Journal, probably in the number appearing in July 2016. Other submissions entered into the competition may also be recommended for publication. All essays should be sent as two hard copies, prepared to journal style, to Mrs. Anne Waites, The Journal of Ecclesiastical History, Robinson College, Cambridge CB3 9AN.
