

Three Christian Capitals

Topography and Politics

by Richard Krautheimer

“Krautheimer has, in a few brief chapters, managed to meld architectural history, political history, social history, and religious history (both ecclesiastical and doctrinal) into a genuinely original explanation of the development of the great early Christian cities.”—Thomas G. Barnes

168 pages, 105 halftones, $27.50

Available at bookstores or order from

1 8 9 3

90

1 9 8 3

University of California Press
Berkeley 94720

Ninety years of scholarly excellence.

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Spring 1984 meeting of the American Society of Church History will be held at The Iliff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado on March 29–31. The Committee on Program announces “Religion and Science” as the program theme and invites proposals for papers or entire sessions. The scope of the topic is intended broadly to include such issues as Religion, Health, and Medicine; and Religion and Technology. Please submit topics and abstracts of proposed papers or formats for proposed sessions along with curriculum vitae to the chair of the committee by 15 August 1983.

Professor Nathan O. Hatch, Chair
Department of History
University of Notre Dame
Notre Dame, Indiana 46556

Professor Ronald L. Numbers
Department of History of Medicine
University of Wisconsin
Madison, Wisconsin 53706

Professor Theodore Dwight Bozeman
School of Religion
University of Iowa
Iowa City, Iowa 52242

Professor J. Alton Templin
Department of Church History
The Iliff School of Theology
2201 South University Blvd.
Denver, Colorado 80210

SOCIETY NOTICES

NOTICE OF FORTHCOMING MEETINGS

Members of the American Society of Church History should plan ahead now to attend the upcoming meetings of the Society. Scheduled times and locations of the next four meetings are as follows:

Hope College, Holland, Michigan, 21-23 April 1983

San Francisco, California (Annual Meeting), 27-30 December 1983

Illiff School of Theology, Denver, Colorado, 29-31 March 1984

Chicago, Illinois, 27-30 December 1984

NEWSLETTER

The American Society of Church History plans to publish a newsletter in the early fall. Persons having items of interest to the membership should send them to the Assistant Secretary, Professor Stuart C. Henry, Box 4793, Duke Station, Durham, NC 27706. Notes and announcements should be succinctly phrased, typed double-spaced on $8\frac{1}{2} \times 11$ paper, and mailed so as to reach Professor Henry by 1 August 1983.

NOMINATIONS FOR 1983

The Committee on Nominations and Personnel will convene during the Spring meeting in Holland, Michigan (21-23 April), and will begin at that time to consider nominees for Council positions and for the post of president-elect. If you have nominees, please contact:

Professor Clarence C. Goen
Wesley Theological Seminary
4400 Massachusetts Ave.
Washington, DC 20016