

FOR SCHOLARSHIP

MORE NEW TESTAMENT STUDIES

C. H. Dodd

This volume, by one of the great New Testament scholars of this century, contains a collection of essays mainly concerned with problems of Gospel criticism; more particularly, they deal with the application of form-critical methods to some of these problems. Their central interest lies in the attempt to identify the older, mainly oral, tradition embodied in our Gospels. 158 Pages, Cloth, $4.50

HOLY BOOK AND HOLY TRADITION

F. F. Bruce and E. G. Rupp, Editors

This volume is composed of papers presented at the International Colloquium held in 1967 at the University of Manchester. Included are essays by a number of biblical scholars, which will add to the understanding of all aspects. 244 Pages, Cloth, $5.95

JESUS AND THE TWELVE

Robert P. Meye

An intensive study of Mark's portrayal of Jesus and his disciples. Meye's work presents some important interpretations that are sure to arouse much discussion. "... He has shown the way with imposing energy and clarity to a better understanding of Mark."—Bo Reicke. "... a profusion of important observations ... an unusually good work."—Oscar Cullmann. 240 Pages, Cloth, $4.95

THE CREATIVE THEOLOGY OF P. T. FORSYTH

Samuel J. Mikolaski, Editor

A revival of interest in the writings of P. T. Forsyth, the Free Church English theologian, is a significant feature in the background of contemporary theology. These selected writings will serve to introduce the reader to Forsyth's major ideas and work. 192 Pages, Cloth, $4.50; Paper, $2.45

ALL THINGS MADE NEW: A theology of Man's Union with Christ

Lewis B. Smedes

A probing analysis and intensive study of the great Catholic and Protestant views on this subject. Smedes concludes that Paul's vision of the new creature in Christ provides a truly modern option for a Christian view of man and his history. 320 Pages, Cloth, $5.95

STUDIES IN THE FOURTH GOSPEL

Leon Morris

These in-depth studies on the Gospel of John are intended primarily for serious students of the Bible. In total, the work is an informed and articulate statement of the conservative position on the many crucial questions raised by the Gospel of John. 288 Pages, Cloth, $5.95

9-7A
At your bookseller's

WM. B. EERDMANS PUBLISHING CO.
Grand Rapids, Michigan

The Rise of Biblical Criticism in America, 1800-1870

The New England Scholars

By Jerry Wayne Brown

This carefully researched study of two schools of nineteenth-century biblical thought, one centered at The Andover Seminary and the other at Harvard University, is the first complete interpretation of the early influence of German Biblical scholarship on the scholars and theologians of New England.

"Jerry Wayne Brown's work is an unusually welcome contribution. . . . Scholars like the Orthodox Moses Stuart of Andover Seminary, the Unitarian Andrews Norton of Harvard, and the radical Transcendentalist Theodore Parker were by no means agreed as to the 'assured results' of critical study; but the controversies that they provoked did have a decisive effect on the course of American theology. Owing to their work, the historical viewpoint won a place in American academic life that was beyond serious challenge. Of these developments Professor Brown has provided a fascinating account, one that is animated by details from unpublished sources and illuminated by careful analysis of the published works. The book is an important one."

—SIDNEY E. AHLSTROM, Yale University

224 pages. With bibliography and index. $10.00

THE ANTINOMIAN CONTROVERSY, 1636-1638

A Documentary History

Edited, with Introduction and Notes, by David D. Hall

"A comprehensive, well edited collection of documents, several published for the first time. . . . Minister John Cotton rather than Anne Hutchinson emerges from the documents as the leading Antinomian—an important point of interpretation. The documents include several of Cotton's writings defending the Antinomian position, John Winthrop's account of the controversy, and the records of Anne Hutchinson's court examination and church trial. . . . Excellent introduction, bibliographical note, and index. Recommended."

—CHOICE: BOOKS FOR COLLEGE LIBRARIES

456 pages. With notes, bibliography, and index. $17.50

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY PRESS

100 Riverview Center

Middletown, Connecticut 06457