

Oxford

Now in paperback

Ideas, Faith, and Feelings

Essays on American Intellectual and Religious History, 1952-1982

HENRY F. MAY, Margaret Byrne Professor of History Emeritus, University of California, Berkeley. This book brings together 30 years of incisive commentary by one of the leading authorities on both American intellectual history and American religious history. "May is an historian of enormous distinction whose ethical insight is as penetrating as his intellectual erudition." —Bruce Kuklick, University of Pennsylvania

1983 256 pp. cloth $25.00 paper $9.95

American Catholics

A History of the Roman Catholic Community in the United States

JAMES HENNESSEY, S.J., Professor of History of Christianity, Boston College. In this "people's history" of the American Catholic community, Father Hennessey, one of its foremost historians, studies the American experience of Roman Catholicism from the first colonial adventurers to the turbulent period from 1960 to the present. "Will remain a definitive study for years to come. . . . Required reading for all students interested in American Church History." —Religious Resources

1981 (paper 1983) 397 pp. cloth $19.95 paper $8.95

Fundamentalism and American Culture

The Shaping of Twentieth-Century Evangelicalism 1870-1925

GEORGE M. MARSDEN, Professor of History, Calvin College. Paying special attention to social, political, intellectual, and distinctly American aspects of the Protestant fundamentalist phenomenon, Marsden offers an interpretation of the movement and its relationship to American culture. "This is scholarship at its best." —C. Allyn Russell in Religious Studies Review. Fundamentalism and American Culture was selected Book of the Year for 1981 by Eternity.

1980 (paper 1982) 307 pp. paper $7.95

The Modernist Impulse in American Protestantism

WILLIAM R. HUTCHISON, Charles Warren Professor of the History of Religion in America, Harvard University. One of the nation's foremost authorities on American religion traces a central and dynamic theme in American Protestantism from the 1870s to the 1930s and beyond. Hutchison holds that the modernist form of thought had powerful and lasting effects. "A masterful historical-theological survey of American Protestant Liberal thought." —The Journal of Religion

1976 (paper 1982) 347 pp. paper $7.95

The Bible in America

Essays in Cultural History

Edited by NATHAN O. HATCH, Associate Professor of History, University of Notre Dame, and MARK A. NOLL, Associate Professor of History, Wheaton College. A group of young scholars explore the complex and ambiguous ways in which the Word has been both a radical and conservative force in America, from the days of the Puritans to Jimmy Carter. "A superb collection. . . . A scintillating contribution to American religious and cultural history." —John M. Mulder, President, Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary

1982 191 pp. cloth $19.95 paper $6.95

Prices are subject to change.

OXFORD UNIVERSITY PRESS

200 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10016

American Protestantism and United States Indian Policy, 1869–92

Robert H. Keller, Jr.

This first comprehensive treatment of U.S. Grant's Peace Policy not only revises notions about separation of church and state in America, but provides new evidence that the efforts of well meaning humanitarians helped destroy Indian culture. Keller's study is the first comprehensive treatment of the subject and the first to use a wide range of denominational as well as government archives. xiv, 359 pages. $27.95

University of Nebraska Press

901 N. 17th Lincoln 68588

LUTHER IN MID-CAREER 1521-1530

By HEINRICH BORNKAMM

Foreword by Karin Bornkamm

The presentation in English of this, the final and greatest work of one of this century's premier Reformation scholars, is an event of signal importance. "It succeeds in showing both Luther's extraordinary achievements and his all too human limitations. The general reader should find the book no less interesting and important than the specialist."—DAVID W. LOTZ, Union Theological Seminary, New York.

$36.95 cloth

At bookstores, dial 1-800-FORTRESS, or write

FORTRESS PRESS

2900 Queen Lane, Philadelphia, Pa. 19129

NOW AVAILABLE
New 10-year
CHURCH HISTORY INDEX
Volumes 40–49 (1971–1980)

This new publication is a comprehensive guide to all articles and book reviews which were published in Church History from 1971–1980. Articles are indexed by author, title, and subject; and book reviews are indexed by the author, title, and reviewer. The index consists of 181 pages and is sized and bound to match the present quarterly issues of Church History.

The price of the new index is $10.00 per copy ($8.00 per copy for active, individual members of the Society). Orders, with remittance, should be sent to:

American Society of Church History
305 East Country Club Lane
Wallingford, Pennsylvania 19086

Earlier Indexes Also Available

- | | |
|--|------------------------|
| (1) Papers and Volumes 1–30 (1932–1961) | $5.50 per copy |
| (2) Volumes 31–39 (1962–1970) | $5.50 per copy |