

Brewer Prize Contest

The American Society of Church History announces a prize competition for a book-length manuscript in the field of church history. The award will consist of a grant of one thousand dollars to assist the author in the publication of the winning manuscript, which shall be described on its title-page as the "Frank S. and Elizabeth D. Brewer Prize Essay of The American Society of Church History" and shall be published in a manner acceptable to the Society. If competing essays are otherwise of equal quality, preference will be given to those dealing with topics related to the history of Congregationalism. Complete manuscripts in final form, fully annotated, must be in the hands of Professor R. W. Albright, 101 Brattle Street, Cambridge 38, Mass., by June 1, 1953. There must be two copies, a typescript and a first carbon, on standard weight paper, double-spaced, with a left-hand margin of at least an inch and one-half. The prize-winning essay will be announced at the Annual Meeting of the Society in December, 1953.

The Anabaptist View of the Church

*An Introduction to Sectarian Protestantism
by Franklin H. Littell*

Frank S. Brewer Prize Essay of the American Society of Church History

The Dean of the Chapel of Boston University has made here a major contribution to the expanding literature on the Left Wing of the Reformation. By using largely neglected sources, Dr. Littell has achieved a precise definition of the essence of Anabaptism in terms of the doctrine of the Church.

"A significant discussion of elements in Anabaptist thinking which directly, or indirectly through Puritanism, have entered into the American Heritage."

—Roland H. Bainton

"Corrects many wrong conceptions on the character of the Protestant Reformation. It is also a significant contribution to a better historical understanding of the Protestant church idea. It should be read not only by professional historians but by all who desire to attain a sound knowledge of the Reformation and historical Protestantism."

—Wilhelm Pauck
