Modern Asian Studies is concerned with the history, geography, politics, sociology, literature, economics and social anthropology of South Asia, South-East Asia, China and Japan.

Contributions should be based on original research or field-work. They should be between 2000 and 8000 words long. Two typed copies should be submitted. Each author will receive twenty-five free offprints of his article and a copy of the Journal in which it appears.

Submission of an article will be taken to imply that it has not been previously published and that it is not on offer to any other publisher. In the interests of authors, copyright is normally assigned to Cambridge University Press. The editor welcomes expression of all shades of opinion, but responsibility for them rests with their authors.

All correspondence should be addressed to Dr Gordon Johnson, Selwyn College, Cambridge CB3 9DQ, England.

PEASANT STUDIES

Peasant Studies is a quarterly journal which publishes original articles, extended review essays, and news and announcements of current research and conferences, focusing on contemporary and historical peasants and peasant societies. The journal consistently offers the best scholarship from a wide variety of fields.

Peasant Studies was founded at the University of Pittsburgh in 1972. In 1981 — beginning with volume 9 — it was reestablished at the University of Utah.

Recent issues have included articles on the 19th-century French peasantry by PETER McPHEE, the literary and artistic work of John Berger by HARVEY J. KAYE, peasant politics in contemporary Egypt by ALAN RICHARDS, peasant survival strategies in 18th-century South India by EUGENE F. IRSCHICK, and contentious gatherings in England between 1500-1900 by CHARLES TILLY. Other essays have discussed agrarian classes in South Asia, community development in Ethiopia, proto-industrialization in France, the writings of Chayanov and Marx, agrarian control in 14th-century Ferrara, definitions of African peasants, and family budgets in colonial Algeria. Extended review essays have examined the latest books on highland Peru, Soviet agriculture, French wet-nursing, and millenarian movements in China.

Please submit all manuscripts, in duplicate, and inquiries to: ANAND A. YANG, Editor, Peasant Studies, Department of History, University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah, U.S.A. 84112.

Annual subscription rates are $10 for students, $15 for individuals, and $20 for institutions. For further information regarding subscriptions and back issues, write to: JAMES R. LEHNING, Managing Editor, at the above address.

ISI Tear Service, 3501 Market Street, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19104, U.S.A., is authorised to supply single copies of separate articles for private use only.

For all other use, permission should be sought from the Cambridge or New York offices of the Cambridge University Press.

Claims for missing issues should be made immediately upon receipt of the subsequent issue.
