

CAEP 2019

REGISTRATION IS OPEN

Our Atlantic Canadian team is working hard to develop a cutting-edge program for CAEP by the Ocean. We aim to highlight areas of excellence in the Atlantic provinces, while focusing on exciting new and emerging science in the field of emergency care. Various formats will be employed to enhance knowledge translation into practice which will provide an interesting and engaging event.

With support from our partners, CAEP is able to present Canada's largest conference on emergency medicine, attracting over 1000 delegates from across the country and around the world.

We look forward to welcoming you to Halifax... Seas the Day!
