

No, we didn't lose a volume. We created a better Ulrich's.

If you're used to seeing ULRICH'S INTERNATIONAL PERIODICALS DIRECTORY in two volumes, the new 15th edition will surprise you. How? We've succeeded in packing more periodicals, with more information about each into just one durable, long-lasting volume. Easier for you to use, less shelf space to occupy, more accessible index, and more valuable than ever before!

5,000 more entries than the last edition!
55,000 periodicals in all!

The newest publications covering such vital issues as drug abuse and birth control . . . the latest journals on everything from South East Asian Studies to jogging . . . the names and addresses of sports magazines from New Zealand. No matter what kind of periodical you're looking for, no matter where in the world it is published or in what language—you'll find it in ULRICH'S.

4 more bibliographic data notations! A total of 15 facts for each entry (where available)!

For the first time you'll be able to find the Dewey Decimal Classification for every periodical listed. For most others, you'll find the ISSN and country code. And, in a number of cases, you'll discover whom to contact for microfilm, and whether back issues are available. Every other bit of information, from circulation figures to frequency of issue to name and address of publisher, has been thoroughly checked, corrected if necessary, and brought up-to-date.

26 more subject classifications! 249 in all!

Covering virtually every facet of human endeavor, the subject categories have been broken down into finer headings to make sure you find what you're looking for the first time around. Some of the new areas listed are Adult Education, History of Africa, Cancer, Women's Interests.

600 more fact-filled pages! 2,600 in all!

ULRICH'S gives you the most in-depth, the most extensive periodicals coverage available. Don't fall behind the times. Order your copies today. 8 1/4" x 11". ISBN 0-8352-0650-5. LC 32-16320. $46.50 plus shipping and handling. December, 1973.
