Hellenic and Roman Societies SLIDES COLLECTION

The Slides Collection contains over 6,500 coloured slides (35mm), covering a wide variety of subjects, including sites on the Greek mainland, the Greek islands, Cyprus, Rome, Italy and the Roman Empire, Etruscan tomb paintings, Greek vases, Roman frescoes and mosaics, the Roman army and Roman Britain.

Individual slides, sets and filmstrips with notes may be hired by members. Filmstrips are also available for sale to members and non-members. A new computerized catalogue of the Greek slides is available at £8. Details of current charges may be obtained from the Keeper of Slides.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF HELLENIC STUDIES

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

PRESIDENT: PROFESSOR E.W. HANDLEY, CBE, FBA, HON. RA

The Society was founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art. It maintains conjointly with the Society for the Promotion of Roman Studies, and in association with the Institute of Classical Studies of the University of London, a Library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of slides. Books and slides can be sent to Members by post; enquiries should be addressed to the Librarian at the above address.

Four lecture meetings are held in London each year and there are joint meetings with the Classical Association in various parts of the country.

Subscribers receive the Society's two annual publications: The Journal of Hellenic Studies, one of the foremost British periodicals in the field of Greek scholarship, containing articles, notes and book reviews, and Archaeological Reports, an illustrated account of new discoveries in Greece and Greek lands. Both periodicals are also on sale to the general public.

Subscriptions are due on January 1 each year. 1994 rates: full members £27 (US $60), student associates £15, corporate members £150, libraries (rates include postage): £41 (US $90). Life membership (£135) is available to those over 65 years of age, after 5 years ordinary membership.

Enquiries and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary. Telephone: 071-387-7495.

THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF ROMAN STUDIES

31-34 GORDON SQUARE, LONDON WC1H 0PP

President: PROFESSOR T. P. WISEMAN, FBA, FSA

The Society, founded in 1910 and based in London, is the leading organization for all those interested in the study of Rome and the Roman Empire. Its scope is wide, covering Roman history, archaeology, literature and art down to about A.D.700. It has a broadly based membership, drawn from over 25 countries and from all ages and walks of life. The Society publishes the Journal of Roman Studies, which deals with the Roman world in general, and also Britannia, a journal of Romano-British and connected studies, which includes an annual survey of Romano-British excavations.

The Society maintains with the Hellenic Society and in conjunction with London University's Institute of Classical Studies a joint library of works on classical antiquity and a collection of slides and film strips. Members resident in or visiting the U.K. may borrow books and slides and consult books belonging to the Institute. Meetings of the Society are held in London and in other parts of the U.K. together with other societies. Triennial conferences with the Hellenic Society and the Classical Association are held in either Oxford or Cambridge.

Annual subscriptions: Members and Schools, £25 (US $50) for either the JRS or Britannia (£40 (US $80) for both). Institutions other than Schools, £30 (US $60) for each publication. Students, £15 (US $30) - student membership is open to students registered at any institution of higher education in any country. Life membership for members over 65 with five years' membership, £125 (US $250).

All enquiries to the Secretary. Telephone 071-387-8157

THE CLASSICAL ASSOCIATION

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange and co-operation among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals and other publications, and supports classics in schools and universities. Every year it holds an annual conference, and sponsors branches all over the country which put on programmes of lectures and other activities.

The Classical Association has about 4,000 members. The annual subscription is £3, and membership is open both to individuals and to institutions; individuals may pay a life subscription of £63. Members receive Proceedings of the Classical Association once a year and a newsletter, CA News, twice a year. They may also buy Classical Association journals at greatly reduced cost. Current annual rates are: Greece and Rome £15; Classical Quarterly £22; Classical Review £22; Classical Quarterly & Review (combined subscription) £38.

Applications for membership and subscriptions (cheques payable to "The Classical Association") should be sent to the Treasurer, Richard Wallace, Dept. of Classics, Keele University, Newcastle under Lyme, Staffs ST5 5BG. The Treasurer can also give information about the Association's other publications, including the Greece and Rome supplements New Surveys in the Classics.

Contributions to the Journal should be sent, after 1 August 1995, to Dr R.L. Hunter, Pembroke College, Cambridge CB2 1RF.

A style guide is printed in JHS vol. 110 (1990) 295-96 (offprints are available from the Hellenic Society office, 31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP).

If copy is submitted as typescript, please send photocopies, not original typescripts. Copy on computer disk is preferred, and a printout should be sent with the disk. A leaflet giving details of acceptable disks and software is available from the Secretary (SPHS office address). Illustrations, including in-text figures, graphs, etc., must be supplied in camera-ready form.

Books intended for review should be addressed to the Librarian (SPHS office address). The Journal does not accept unsolicited book reviews.
