ANNOUNCES THE PUBLICATION OF THE HARD-COVER EDITION OF A NEW BOOK

Russian Emigré Literature

A Collection of Articles in Russian
With English Resumés

Edited by NIKOLAI P. POLTORATZKY

This volume consists of contributions by some 30 American, Canadian, and European scholars and a few outstanding Russian émigré men of letters and editors. There are five sections. The first deals with the development and general problems of Russian literature in exile, the second with major poets and prose writers, the third with literary scholarship and criticism, and the fourth with the contribution of main literary periodicals. The fifth contains English resumés of all articles. There are also brief sketches of the contributors and an Index of names.

viii + 414 pages. 24 × 16 cm. $10.00 per copy. Check or money order payable to the University of Pittsburgh. Please address all orders to: Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, Loeffler Building 119, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa. 15260.

The hard-cover edition (as well as the paperback edition) is obtainable also from Victor Kamkin Bookstore, Inc. and A. Neimanis Buchvertrieb and their representatives.

NEW FROM CALIFORNIA

The Baltic States: Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania

The Years of Independence, 1917-1940

George von Rauch

Until now there has been no history available in English of the three Baltic states during their independence. This work examines the historical background and the problems which beset the new nations. The author discusses topics such as attempts at federation, the Communist putsch at Revel, and the tendency toward authoritarianism.

Church, State and Opposition in the U.S.S.R.

Gerhard Simon

The churches are a fringe phenomenon in Soviet society today, but nevertheless one that is taken seriously by the atheist state. Dr. Gerhard Simon, one of the world's outstanding authorities on religion in Russia, examines church-state relations and religious persecution from the time of the revolution to the present.
