INTERNATIONAL LAW

GAIN THE GLOBAL EDGE
sydney.edu.au/law

"Sydney Law School is a powerhouse for critical legal thinking. It attracts academics of the highest calibre from the most reputed universities across the globe, and fosters an environment where academic enquiry and rigour is actively nurtured and encouraged. My study has enabled me to learn from experts in public international law, challenged my thinking and greatly supported my professional development."
Sashika Jayewardene,
Master of Laws (LLM)

The opportunity to study in London.

Located at 1 Suffolk Street in London's Trafalgar Square, the University of Notre Dame London Law Centre and its Concannon Program in International Law—the only such program fully accredited by both the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association—presents a unique opportunity to study comparative and international law in London under the instruction of prominent American, British and other European faculty.

In addition to a semester or year of study in Notre Dame's J.D. program, a complete LL.M. program is also available.

The University's Royal Waterloo building offers superb student accommodations.

The International Human Rights Clinic at Santa Clara Law had another exciting and successful semester. Under the leadership of clinic director Francisco Rivera and clinical fellow Britton Schwartz, twelve students worked on ten cases and projects involving human trafficking in the Bay Area, LGBTI rights in Jamaica, mass deportations in the Dominican Republic, environmental justice in Ecuador, precautionary measures before the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights, U.S. human rights treaty reporting obligations, due process in a death penalty case in California, and California legislation on corporate accountability for human rights violations. Several students participated in sessions before the U.N. Human Rights Committee in Geneva and a hearing before the Inter-American Court of Human Rights held in Mexico City. In sum, students worked more than 2,000 hours on behalf of human rights victims at home and abroad.

MASTER OF LAWS (LL.M.)

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW - CLEVELAND, OHIO

The Master of Laws (LL.M.) degrees are a one-year, full-time program, designed to give graduates of foreign law schools an opportunity to study the United States legal system and international law and trade, and to become truly capable lawyers in the 21st century's global economy. Our LL.M. students have access to 170 Juris Doctor (J.D.) courses, as well as courses specifically designed for the needs of LL.M. students. Our students, who have come from 60 countries, form a close-knit community and become involved in law school activities with J.D. classmates. LL.M. students benefit from individual attention and guidance in a family atmosphere. We offer four LL.M. degrees and a summer law institute.

LL.M. in United States and Global Legal Studies — Focus on United States legal research, writing, and analytical methods with a flexible curriculum to meet each individual student's career goals. Students may earn certificates in several areas of law.

LL.M. in Intellectual Property Law — Focus on the doctrine and policy of United States intellectual property law, including patents, trademarks, copyrights and trade secrets.

LL.M. in International Business Law — Focus on academic analysis and practical applications of United States business law as applied to international transactions. This degree is also offered online.

LL.M. in International Criminal Law — Focus on national security law, international humanitarian law, and international criminal law as applied to international tribunals or national courts.

Summer Language and Law Institute — Open to any foreign legal professional or international student, this intensive four-week training experience in Legal English aims to introduce students to the U.S. legal system.

Statelessness

The Enigma of the International Community

William E Conklin

'Statelessness' is a legal status denoting lack of any nationality, a status in which the otherwise normal link between an individual and a state is absent. The increasingly widespread problem of statelessness has profound legal, social and economic consequences but also gives rise to the paradox of an international community which claims universal standards for all natural persons while allowing its member states to allow statelessness to occur. In this powerfully argued book, Conklin critically evaluates traditional efforts to recognise and reduce statelessness.

William E Conklin is a Professor in the Faculty of Law and Faculty of Graduate Studies, University of Windsor.

Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide

A Commentary

Edited by Christian Tams, Lars Berster and Björn Schiffbauer

The 1948 UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide ('Genocide Convention') has a special standing in international law and international politics. For 60 years, the crime of genocide has been recognised as the most horrendous crime in international law, famously designated the 'crime of crimes'. In this work the 19 provisions of the Convention are analysed article-by-article, with abundant references to state practice and case law.

Christian J Tams is Professor of International Law at the University of Glasgow.

Lars Berster is Senior Research Fellow at the University of Cologne.

Björn Schiffbauer is a Research Fellow at the University of Cologne.

The South China Sea Arbitration

A Chinese Perspective

Edited by Stefan Talmon and Bing Bing Jia

This book aims to offer a Chinese perspective on some of the issues raised in the arbitral proceedings of the South China Sea dispute between the Republic of the Philippines and the People's Republic of China. On 19 February 2013, the PRC formally expressed its opposition to the institution of proceedings, making it clear from the outset that it will not have any part in these arbitral proceedings and that this position will not change. It is thus to be expected that over the next year and a half, the Tribunal will receive written memorials and hear oral submissions from the Philippines only. The Chinese position will go unheard. This book aims to offer a (not the) Chinese perspective on some of the issues to be decided by the Tribunal and thus to assist the Tribunal in meeting its obligations under the Convention. The book does not set out the official position of the Chinese government, but is rather to serve as a kind of amicus curiae brief advancing possible legal arguments on behalf of the absent respondent.

Stefan Talmon is Professor of Public Law, Public International Law and European Union Law, and Director of the Institute for Public International Law at the University of Bonn.

Bing Bing Jia, D. Phil. (Oxon.) is Professor of International Law, Law School, Tsinghua University, Beijing. He also acts as a consultant on matters of international law.

The practice of law transcends national boundaries. So does a USC Gould School of Law education.

The USC Gould School of Law's International Human Rights Clinic works on projects and cases that confront the most pressing human rights concerns of our day. Under the supervision of Clinic Director Professor Hannah Garry, students seek justice on behalf of victims; hold perpetrators of human rights abuses accountable and work towards progressive development of the law.

Students in the clinic have worked on cases before the International Criminal Court, Special Tribunal for Lebanon, the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia and the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda. Sixteen students have held externships at these Tribunals; one served as a fellow. Students have represented survivors of forced labor and commercial sex trafficking; drafted amicus briefs applying international law to issues such as the Armenian genocide and juvenile life without parole sentencing; and, publicized human rights issues through a variety of events.

International Criminal Court Chief Prosecutor to Deliver Annual David J. Bederman Lecture

Fatou Bensouda will deliver the 2014 David J. Bederman Lecture at Emory Law on April 9 at 2 p.m.

Fatou B. Bensouda

*Chief Prosecutor,
International Criminal Court*

Bensouda is the first African woman to serve as chief prosecutor of an international tribunal. Born in the Gambia, she has been the International Criminal Court's lead prosecutor since June 2012, after having served as a Deputy Prosecutor in charge of the Prosecutions Division of the court since 2004. In 2012, Time Magazine included Bensouda on its list of the 100 most influential people in the world.

The Bederman Lecture is held annually and was established to honor the late Professor Bederman's extraordinary record of scholarship, teaching and advocacy. Bederman, the K.H. Gyr Professor of Private International Law at Emory Law, was a noted authority on public international law, admiralty and legal history.

SUNY Buffalo Law School

The State University of New York

The first law school in New York State to launch an advanced-standing two-year J.D. for internationally-trained lawyers

EXTENDING OUR GLOBAL REACH

We are proud to announce the launch of an accelerated program for students who already have earned a law degree outside the United States, and who want to seek admission to the New York State Bar. In this new and innovative program, students receive advanced standing, and can finish the J.D. degree in just two years.

“As New York State’s public law school we are uniquely positioned to introduce international students to New York law and legal culture, which has become a lingua franca worldwide.”

William Kovacic to Join U.K. Competition and Markets Authority Board

William E. Kovacic, Global Competition Professor of Law and Policy and Director of the George Washington University Law School’s Competition Law Center, was appointed as a non-executive director of the new competition regulator in the United Kingdom, the Competition and Markets Authority.

This appointment, which will combine the current duties of the Office of Fair Trading and the Competition Commission, is a major step toward creating the United Kingdom’s newly strengthened and streamlined competition regime. Professor Kovacic was appointed to the regulator’s board along with four other individuals. The watchdog is set to begin operations on April 1, 2014.

GRADUATE LAW AT THE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA

In 2013, we launched a new 2-Year JD for Foreign-Trained Lawyers. This program allows for completion of the JD in as little as 2 years. Unlike an LLM degree, the JD is accepted for practice in all U.S. jurisdictions. Combined with a foreign law degree, the JD opens the door to global legal practice.

We also launched a new SJD Program (Doctor of Juridical Science). This program is designed for those seeking to do in-depth research on U.S. legal topics or in our areas of special expertise.

Our long-standing one-year LLM Program (Master of Laws) provides an opportunity to engage in a shorter research project or to focus on the skills and courses required by the select U.S. jurisdictions that admit foreign-trained lawyers with a U.S. LLM to practice.

Rethinking Money Laundering & Financing of Terrorism in International Law

Towards a New Global Legal Order

Edited by Marie-Luisa Frick and Andreas Th. Müller

- May 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 20714 1
- Hardback (xxxiv, 474)
- List price EUR 180.- / US$ 250.-

In Rethinking Money Laundering & Financing of Terrorism in International Law: Towards a New Global Legal Order, Roberto Durrieu provides a broad and original analysis of the phenomenon of money laundering, through a thorough examination of the financing of terrorism. The necessity of excluding the financing of terrorism from the legal definition of money laundering is clearly illustrated through extensive, original and comparative research.

International Humanitarian Law and the Changing Technology of War

Edited by Dan Saxon

- March 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 22948 8
- Hardback (xviii, 358 pp.)
- List price EUR 165.- / US$ 229.-
- International Humanitarian Law Series, 41

Increasingly, war is and will be fought by machines – and virtual networks linking machines - which, to varying degrees, are controlled by humans. This book explores the legal challenges for armed forces resulting from the development and use of new military technologies – automated and autonomous weapon systems, cyber weapons, “non-lethal” weapons and advanced communications - for the conduct of warfare.

“This book, edited by Dan Saxon, formerly of Cambridge University, is an important contribution to the literature on the relationship between law, war, and technology”
(From the Foreword by Professor Michael N. Schmitt).

Responsibility of International Organizations

Essays in Memory of Sir Ian Brownlie

The author offers an extensive review of the mechanisms available in different (international) law-systems to prevent and redress miscarriages of justice, from the causes of miscarriages of justice to examining forensic reports.

Economic Diplomacy

Japan and the Balance of National Interests

Maaïke Okano-Heijmans, Clingendael Institute

- July 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 25542 5
- Hardback (xx, 210 pp.)
- List price EUR 101.- / US$ 131.-
- Diplomatic Studies, 9

Since the 1990s, Japan's economic diplomacy has undergone fundamental changes. The reconfiguration of regional and global power encouraged the Japanese government, in coordination and cooperation with the private sector, to reassess its economic diplomacy policy. Economic Diplomacy: Japan and the Balance of National Interests illuminates the debates underlying these shifts, the various ways by which Japan's reinvention of its economic diplomacy is implemented, and the consequences for Japanese foreign policy at large. The insights presented in this book can be applied to the study of countries around the world, including but not limited to other states in East Asia that follow a similar economic growth model, and Western countries."

Amrei Müller

- April 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 24527 3
- Hardback (xxviii, 336 pp.)
- List price EUR 125.- / US$ 174.-
- Nottingham Studies on Human Rights, 2

In The Relationship between Economic, Social and Cultural Rights and International Humanitarian Law, Amrei Müller offers a detailed analysis of the legal consequences of the parallel application of economic, social and cultural rights and international humanitarian law to non-international armed conflicts.

The Interpretation of International Investment Law

Equality, Discrimination and Minimum Standards of Treatment in Historical Context

Todd Weiler

- May 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 23222 8
- Hardback (xlvii, pp. 525)
- List price EUR 164.- / US$ 199.-
- International Litigation in Practice, 6

In The Interpretation of International Investment Law: Equality, Discrimination and Minimum Standards of Treatment in Historical Context, author Todd Weiler demonstrates how historiographical analysis should be adopted in the interpretation of international investment law obligations. Weiler subjects some of the most commonly held beliefs about the nature and development of international investment law to a critical re-appraisal, based upon meticulously assembled historical record. In the process, the book provides readers with a fresh perspective on some of the oldest obligations in international law.

Islam and International Law

Engaging Self-Centrism from a Plurality of Perspectives

Edited by Marie-Luise Frick and Andreas Th. Müller

- June 2013
- ISBN 978 90 04 23335 5
- Hardback (xx, 468 pp.)
- List price EUR 161.- / US$ 209.-
- Brill's Arab and Islamic Laws Series, 7

Islam and International Law explores the multi-faceted relationship of Islam and international law. Current debates on Sharia, Islam and the "West" often suffer from prejudice and platitudes. The book seeks to engage such self-centrism by providing a plurality of perspectives, both in terms of interdisciplinary research and geographic backgrounds.

International Commercial Arbitration Second Edition

By Gary B. Born

The second edition of Gary Born's International Commercial Arbitration is an authoritative 3,950 page treatise, in three volumes, providing the most complete available commentary and analysis on all aspects of the international commercial arbitration process.

The first edition of International Commercial Arbitration is widely acknowledged as the preeminent commentary in the field. It was awarded the 2011 Certificate of Merit by the American Society of International Law and was voted the "International Dispute Resolution Book of the Year" by the OGEMID list serve. The first edition has been extensively cited in national court decisions and arbitral awards around the world.

Reviews of First Edition:

"A splendid treatise on international commercial arbitration which is unsurpassed in the breadth and depth of its exposition and in the acuity of its analysis. It marries the industry of the meticulous scholar with the pragmatic judgment of one of international arbitration's leading practitioners. A great achievement."

Stephen Schwebel, former President, International Court of Justice

"A tour de force by one of the giants of international arbitration, which must have a place in every lawyer's library."

L. Yves Fortier C.C. Q.C., Ogilvy Renault LLP

"This is an unparalleled book on the law, practice and theory of international commercial arbitration. It explains every aspect of international arbitration with both impressive doctrinal detail and exceptional theoretical acuity, and will be indispensable for both practitioners and academics."

Professor Jack Goldsmith, Harvard Law School

"Stunningly comprehensive, accessible, and bristling with insights: the definitive text on international arbitration."

Haold Hongju Koh, Gerard C. & Bernice Latrobe Smith Professor of International Law; Yale Law School

"A magisterial exposition of international arbitration, which is breathtaking in its scope and comprehensiveness."

Michael Hwang S.C. Singapore/Essex Court Chambers

"A remarkable achievement, combining rigorous academic analysis with insights borne from a high level practical experience."

Albert van den Berg, Hanotiau & van den Berg

"An undisputed classic [and a] must for counsel, arbitrators, scholars and students."

Horacio A. Grigera Naon, former Secretary General, ICC International Court of Arbitration

ASIL INSIGHTS

The Google Book Settlement and International Intellectual Property Law*
By Daniel Gervais

On March 22, 2011, New York Federal District Court Judge Dennis Chin rejected a proposed settlement in two lawsuits against Google. The lawsuits were structured as class actions filed by groups representing mostly trade authors and major publishers. The settlement would have allowed Google to continue scanning copyrighted books into its search index and displaying the text to its users in exchange for the payment of license fees to copyright holders.

Global Justice Center: Senior Legal Advisor Position
The Global Justice Center (GJC) is seeking a Senior Legal Advisor to focus on developing progressive, equity-based global legal precedents through the strategic enforcement of international human rights law. This position is for a lawyer with significant international human rights law experience, who is eager to "push the envelope" on how international human rights laws are interpreted and enforced. To apply, please send cover letter and resume to Julia Thomas. Click here for more information.

The Electronic Resource Guide to International Law (ERG)

Published by the American Society of International Law since 1997, the ERG is designed to be used by researchers, practitioners, students and teachers of international law. Available in both a print and online edition, the ERG allows the user to explore the breadth of a topic or focus on locating information on a narrow issue. Each chapter describes the scope of the topic, offers tips and caveats on online research and resources, and provides live links to the most important and useful primary and secondary materials on the Web. Chapters include:

- Introduction to Researching International Law
- European Union
- International Commercial Arbitration
- International Criminal Law
- International Economic Law
- International Environmental Law
- International Humanitarian Law
- International Human Rights
- International Intellectual Property Law
- International Organizations

Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation

The Howard M. Holtzmann Research Center for the Study of International Arbitration and Conciliation was established by the American Society of International (ASIL) to serve as an education and research forum for individuals interested in international dispute resolution. Building on the Society's recognized expertise in this growing field, the Center will serve as an indispensable research and education resource, providing cutting-edge, expert information and analysis on significant issues and current developments in the international arbitration field. Center activities will include:

- Collection of research materials on international arbitration, including Judge Holtzmann's personal library and papers;
- A regular program of events, including a speaker series with leading figures and continuing legal education courses on hot topics in the field; and
- Working groups and task forces convened to address the key challenges and emerging issues relating to international arbitration.

The Center is conveniently located at the Society's headquarters and is open to everyone interested in learning more about international arbitration and conciliation.

For more information about the Center and its upcoming programs, please contact Holtzmann Center Director Djurdja Lazic, dlazic@asil.org.

The ASIL Holtzmann Center is established in honor of Judge Howard M. Holtzmann. Over the course of his career, Judge Holtzmann has made enormous contributions to the field of international arbitration and conciliation, and mentored scores of young lawyers working in the field. He was central to the American Arbitration Association (AAA) work with the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce to build an East-West bridge through international arbitration. Notable achievements include: service as a member of the U.S. delegation to the Arbitration Working Group of the UN Commission on International Trade Law (1974-2011), which produced the UNCITRAL Arbitration Rules, the UNCITRAL Conciliation Rules, and the UNCITRAL Model Law on International Commercial Arbitration, and service as a Member of the Iran-U.S. Claims Tribunal (1981-1994). For his pioneering work, the King of Sweden inducted Judge Holtzmann as a Commander of the Royal Order of the Polar Star in 2003. In 2005, he received the Silver Medal of Honor of Vienna, and in 2006, the AAA gave him its highest honor, the Peacemaker Award, for his "work to further peace throughout the world." Judge Holtzmann has been a member of ASIL since 1972.

INTERNATIONAL LAW: 100 WAYS IT SHAPES OUR LIVES

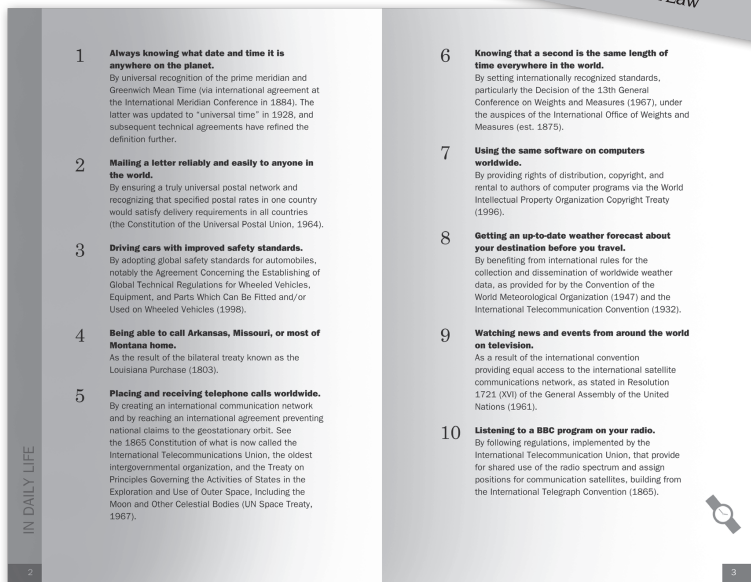

Many find international law abstract and static. Topics such as war and peace or relationships between countries are considered by some to be not so much questions of law, but of power and influence. Others question the existence of international law.

International Law: 100 Ways It Shapes Our Lives was conceived from the proposition that international law not only exists, but also penetrates more deeply and broadly into everyday life than is generally recognized. Some ways are of relatively recent vintage, while others are long-standing. 100 examples were identified by ASIL members, vetted by a smaller group of experts, and organized into seven chapters: 1) daily life; 2) leisure; 3) travel; 4) commerce 5) health and the environment; 6) personal liberty; 7) public safety and global security.

Join us in demonstrating how international law shapes our lives by

- Visiting 100 Ways at www.asil.org/100ways
- Using it in teaching and general civic education programs;
- Adding ways to the list; and
- Sharing your experiences using International Law: 100 Ways It Shapes Our Lives.

We hope that this creative and interactive project will help demonstrate the diversity and the centrality of international law to our lives today.

Shape the Future of International Law

ASIL has allowed me to meet other lawyers with similar interests, but also exposed me to new issues of international law. ASIL offered me a space to share my ideas and build on them...[and] to be an active participant in international law.
