The Australian Journal of Chinese Affairs

Should be regularly consulted by everybody who wants to keep abreast of developments in the academic disciplines concerned with China.

Jurgen Domes, University of Saarlandes, Germany

The single best scholarly journal on contemporary China. If one has to limit oneself to one journal on China, it should be the AJCA.

Edward Friedman, University of Wisconsin

The AJCA is the liveliest periodical in the field of contemporary Chinese studies. Feisty, enterprising, informed, and current.

Andrew J. Nathan, Columbia University

Up-to-date research, fresh ideas, and the thoughts of the leading specialists on all aspects of contemporary China.

Lucian Pye, MIT

Now clearly the best journal in the field. Consistently insightful. It is a must for every China scholar's fingertips.

Frederick Teiwes, University of Sydney

Currently the most interesting journal in the field.

Andrew Walder, Harvard University

The AJCA is fast becoming the leading journal of contemporary Chinese studies. This is one of the few journals that I read cover to cover.

James L. Watson, Harvard University

Has now become must reading for any serious student of contemporary China.

Martin K. Whyte, University of Michigan

SCANDINAVIAN JOURNAL OF DEVELOPMENT ALTERNATIVES

Post Box 7444, 103 91 Stockholm Sweden

This is a journal with an interdisciplinary focus in the social sciences. It is both theoretical and practical nature, and seeks to confront and deal with every aspect of human development, covering all the socio-economic systems of the world. It has interest in such issues as basic social needs, fulfillment of human rights, avoidance of both class and other structural violence, the search for disarmament and peace, the maintenance of ecological balance, the removal of poverty and unemployment, improvement in North-South relations, and the finding of an international framework to deal equitably with trade, industrialization, migration, technology transfer, and general socio-economic disparities of a regional or a global kind.

Selected articles in recent issues

One Special Issue of Andre Gunder Frank (150 pages) entitled "The Underdevelopment of Development" which includes Frank's Bibliography of Publications 1955-1990, Chapters in Collections, Edited Books, Anthologies Latin American Development Theories Revisited, A Participant Review Essay. This issue includes the details of 110 books, 104 collections, and 600 periodical articles. This is useful to libraries and researchers.

Coercive Cooperation

Explaining Multilateral Economic Sanctions

Lisa L. Martin

When Saddam Hussein's army invaded Kuwait, the United States took the lead in organizing stringent economic sanctions against Iraq. Since unilateral sanctions rarely succeed, "coercive cooperation" was a necessity. This innovative study shows that multilateral sanctions are coercive in their pressure on their target and in their origin: the sanctions themselves frequently result from coercive policies, with one state attempting to convince others through persuasion, threats, and promises. To analyze this process, Lisa Martin uses a novel methodology combining game-theoretic models, statistical analysis, and case studies.

Cooperation and Governance in International Trade

The Strategic Organizational Approach

Beth V. Yarbrough and Robert M. Yarbrough

International trade liberalization historically has taken many organizational forms—unilateral, bilateral, minilateral, and multilateral. Given the proliferation of normative views about which of these should be pursued, economists and political scientists have devoted surprisingly little attention to the reasons for the observed variation in the chosen forms. This book is the first to develop a single theoretical framework to account for past liberalization practices and also to anticipate ongoing changes in the international organization of trade policy.
