

EDITORIAL NOTE

Many of the documents in this volume are taken from the memoranda rolls of the exchequer. For this year these are longer and contain more important material than normal. The relationship between the two rolls, King's Remembrancer's and Lord Treasurer's Remembrancer's, is complex. Neither is a direct copy of the other, and each contains some documents not included in the other. Items do not always follow in the same order in the two rolls. It is most likely that both were drawn up at the same time, independently, with the clerks often working from a single text. In this edition all the variant readings between the two rolls have not been noted, particularly in the case of Anglo-Norman spelling. Nor has one roll been consistently preferred to the other; where a document appears in both, I have used whichever version appears preferable, noting significant variant readings. The roll given first in the reference is that on which the edited text is based.

In transcribing the documents, I have attempted to normalize use of u and v, and c and t. In Anglo-Norman, q' has been given as qe. Deficiencies in the manuscript are marked . . . , and sections in square brackets are editorial additions. The punctuation has been modernized, but the honorific .. indicating a name omitted, as in no. 40, has been preserved. All major abbreviations have been extended.

In giving references to documents in the Public Record Office, modern call-numbers have been given, as follows:
