

Editorials

- Allocation of scarce psychotherapeutic resources: two landmark documents. J. Holmes 65
- Continuous professional development for psychiatrists. M. Harris 67

Original papers

- NHS beds for people with learning disabilities.
N. M. Bailey and S.-A. Cooper 69
- Treatment in the community in the absence of consent. J. A. T. Dyer 73
- Improving treatment adherence among patients with chronic psychoses.
A. Sair, K. Bhui, S. Haq and G. Strathdee 77
- Psychiatrists' attitudes to physical examination of new out-patients with a major depressive disorder. A. C. Mitchell, E. M. McCabe and K. W. Brown 82
- Characteristics of referrals to a mental health service for young people in care. J. Butler and P. Vostanis 85
- General hospital services for those who carry out deliberate self-harm.
T. Hughes, S. Hampshire, E. Renvoize and D. Storer 88
- Weapon carrying: an important part of risk assessment. D. W. Perry, I. D. Cormack, C. Campbell and A. Reed 92
- Tattoos, scars, body adornment and dishevelment in an acute psychiatric population. K. Williams 94

Audit

- Documentation of vascular risk factors in vascular dementia. R. Rao 97
- Audit cycle on young people presenting with self-harm. E. Lockhart 100

Trainees' forum

- Research by senior registrars in psychiatry. C. J. Williams and S. Curran 102

Education

- Training and employment in New Zealand. S. Kisely 105
- Commentary on criminology at Cambridge. H. Smith 109

Psychiatry and the media

- Climbing Mount Everest: tackling the media at a regional level.
T. Harrison 111

Briefings

- Letter from the American Psychiatric Association Meeting. S. Brandon 113

Personal view

- Psychology of compulsory detention. A. Beveridge 115

Exchange of correspondence

- Work of the Mental Health Act Commission 118

Correspondence 122The College

- The College archives. M. Harcourt Williams 125
- Honorary Fellowships 126
- Library and Information Service 126
- List of assessors 127

Miscellany 128Forthcoming events

inside back cover